Esanzo Chants Pour Mon Pays Songs For My:

Esanzo : songs for my country Antoine-Roger Bolamba,1977 Encyclopedia of African Literature Simon Gikandi,2003-09-02 The most comprehensive reference work on African literature to date this book covers all the key historical and cultural issues in the field The Encyclopedia contains over 600 entries covering criticism and theory African literature s development as a field of scholarship and studies of established and lesser known writers and their texts While the greatest proportion of literary work in Africa has been a product of the twentieth century the Encyclopedia also covers the literature back to the earliest eras of story telling and oral transmission making this a unique and valuable resource for those studying social sciences as well as humanities This work includes cross references suggestions for further reading and a comprehensive index Black Africa V. Klima,K.F. Ruzicka,P. Zima,2012-12-06 In October 1972 our Czech written book Literary eerne Afriky Literatures of Black Mrica was published in Prague presenting a survey of an extensive field The publication which was signed at that time by all three authors differed from most contemporary introductions to the study of Mrican literatures in a threefold way a The authors attempted to cover various literacy and literary efforts in the area roughly delimited by Senegal in the west Kenya in the east Lake Chad in the north and the Cape in the south We were well aware even at that time that neither technically nor linguistically would it be possible to cover all literary efforts within that area We did try however to include in our survey both the literacies and literatures written in the Indo European linguae francae English French Portuguese and in at least several of the major African languages of the area We did not attempt an exhaustive description but wished rather to show the mutual relationships which emerge if the literatures of thii area written either in the major linguae francae or in the African languages are studied not as isolated phenomena but as mutually complementary features b As two of us were linguists and one was a literary historian we did not limit our analysis of the developing literacies and literatures to the purely cultural and literary aspects Our intention waR to deal whcre and if it was relevant not only with the process of African literary development but also with the simultaneous complementar African Authors Donald E.
