Haycutter Memoirs A Collection Of Poetry:

Haycutter Memoirs Toni Obermeier Zervos,2001-06 This descriptive collection offers insight into a woman s soul as depicted through traditional and non traditional poetry The memoirs within this book offer a nostalgic walk through the various stages and emotion one may experience in life Take a walk through memory lane as you enjoy the sentimental verse and illustrations within THE UNITED METHODIST FREE CHURCHES' MAGAZINE ,1878 Walking Wounded

Andrew Taylor,2013-10-24 This uncompromising biography tells the story of a wounded D Day veteran a deserter a violent drunk a loving father who abandoned his first child a boxer and brawler a wife beater a bigamist and a passionately romantic lover It is also most importantly the story of a poet Vernon Scannell wrote some of the finest poetry to come out of the Second World War He won the Chomondeley Prize and the Heinemann Award and for half a century he was acknowledged as one of the leading poets in the country His Collected Poems are still in print and his poetry for both adults and children is regularly anthologised and appears on English Literature examination papers Scannell died in 2007 and Walking Wounded draws on his personal diaries poems and other writings to offer the first detailed study of this complex controversial and occasionally tragic life For the first time the women who loved him tell their stories his children describe growing up with a father who was funny affectionate sometimes violent and often not there at all and his fellow poets including Seamus Heaney Anthony Thwaite Alan Brownjohn and Kit Wright speak of the dedicated stylist assured performer and occasionally roistering drunk that they knew Scannell was seriously wounded in Normandy shortly after D Day but the book looks at the deeper mental scars from the War that he bore all his life and of the suffering they caused to him and the people who loved him It is an important book about an important poet which investigates where poetry comes from and the terrible price that sometimes has to be paid for it The Complete Works of Nathaniel Hawthorne (With Illustrations) Nathaniel portraits of red and gray James Morehead,2022-03-20 In this collection of memoir poems James C Morehead Poet Laureate of Dublin California brings universal themes to life through journeys to the USSR and the mountains of Tuscany the concert halls in San Francisco and a tiny town in Wyoming the cables of Yosemite s Half Dome and the beaches of Normandy In this second collection of poems James Morehead s imagery is vivid spare and elemental and it is consistently chosen and arranged to achieve intensely poetic effects The rhythmic control is impeccable The centerpiece of this collection a long series of poems that chronicle a trip through the former Soviet Union is a fast moving impressionistic feast of imagery Sunglasses denim shirts vodka debauches dollars rubles steely eyed Russian authorities ever on the lookout for forbidden deals all of it is transparent and engaging Carmine Di Biase Distinguished Professor of English Emeritus Jacksonville State University

The Sunset Maker Donald Justice,1987 Offers tributes in the form of elegies and homages to the almost forgotten people and places and times past that range in subject matter from Henry James return to America in 1904 to the hoboes of the thirties to present day Florida

The Real West Marginal Way: A Poet's Autobiography Richard Hugo,1992-06-17 Of Richard Hugo s Making Certain It Goes On David Wagoner has written Richard Hugo spared himself and us no pains or joys in making the wonderful vigorous original poems brought together in this single collection His was and is a very important voice in modern American poetry Hugo was also an editor of the Yale Younger Poets series and a distinguished teacher and master of the personal essay Now many of his essays have been assembled and arranged by Ripley Hugo the poet s widow and a writer and teacher and Lois and James Welch writers and close friends of the poet Together the essays constitute a compelling autobiographical narrative that takes Hugo from his lonely childhood through the war years and his working and creative life to an interview just before his death in 1982 William Matthews also a friend of Hugo s has written an introduction

A Clip of Steel Thomas Blackburn,2022 A Clip of Steel was first published in 1969 when Thomas Blackburn was fifty three years old He had often explored the traumas of his childhood and early life in his poetry but in this memoir he tells the story in its terrifying entirety He called the work a picaresque autobiography and in a writing style that races you through the pages he confronts his own and his family s demons with humour compassion and not a trace of self pity By the end of the book he seems to have more or less survived the experience of growing up while we his readers emerge wide eyed with incredulity blinking into the ordinary daylight of our lives This edition includes a new introduction by the author s daughter Julia Blackburn

It Goes with the Territory Elaine Feinstein,2013-10 The first memoir by an influential poet novelist and critic full of literary anecdotes A prolific author of novels poetry collections plays biographies and translations Elaine Feinstein shares the story of her journey from a Jewish childhood in Leicester into the undergraduate world of post war Cambridge the excitement of friendships in the literary world and the tensions of a poet s writing life inside a long and sometimes painful marriage This book however is not only the intimate memoir of one of Britain s finest poets and novelists it is also the story of a rapidly changing country and of an entire generation of authors Told with the precision of a biographer and the finesse of a poet and peppered with witty literary anecdotes this is an absorbing read from beginning to end Poets in Their Youth Eileen Simpson,2014-10-21 Reprint Originally published New York Random House c1982
