Hazrat Mian Mir and the Sufi Tradition Brahma Singh Brahma, 1994 On Sufism includes brief biography of M m M ra Indian Muslim saint Sufi Women of South Asia Tahera Aftab, 2022-05-16 In Sufi Women of South Asia Veiled Friends of God the first biographical compendium of hundred and forty one women from the eleventh to the twentieth century Tahera Aftab fills a serious gap in the existing scholarship regarding the historical presence of women in Islam and brings women to the centre of the expanding literature on Sufism The book s translated excerpts from the original Farsi and Urdu sources that were never put together create a much needed English language source base on Sufism and Muslim women The book questions the spurious religious and cultural traditions that patronise gender inequalities in Muslim societies and convincingly proves that these pious women were exemplars of Islamic piety who as true spiritual masters avoided its public display Middle East Garden Traditions Michel Conan, Dumbarton Oaks, 2007 This book unites new information and surprising results from the last fifteen years of garden research at a remove from the clichés of Orientalism Garden archaeology reveals the economic importance of Judean gardens in Roman times and the visual complexity of gardens created and transformed in Moorish Spain More contemporary approaches unravel the cultural continuities variations and differences between gardens in the Middle East since Roman times and in the Islamic world The Language of the Taj Mahal Michael D. Calabria, 2021-10-21 The Taj Mahal built by the Mughal emperor Shah Jahan 1592 1666 CE as a mausoleum for his wife Mumtaz Mahal 1593 1631 CE is considered exceptional in the history of world architecture This book provides a deeper understanding of the Taj Mahal and its builder by examining its inscriptions within their architectural historical and biographical contexts The texts adorning the Taj Mahal comprise verses from twenty two different chapters of the Qur'an but their meaning and significance escapes most non Muslim visitors or those unable to read them This book will be the first dedicated solely to the inscriptions in the monument providing translations commentary and interpretation of the texts As well as offering a unique approach to the study of the building the book uses the inscriptions to expound the foundational elements of Islam the faith of Shah Jahan and also what the Taj Mahal still means today Spatializing Popular Sufi Shrines in Punjab Yogesh Snehi, 2019-04-24 This book explores the organic lives of popular Sufi shrines in contemporary Northwest India It traverses the worldview of shrine spaces rituals and their complex narratives and provides an insight into their urban and rural landscapes in the post Partition Indian Punjab What happened to these shrines when attempts were made to dissuade Sikhs Muslims and Hindus from their veneration of popular saints in the early twentieth century What was the fate of popular shrines that persisted even when the Muslim population was virtually wiped off as a result of migration during Partition How did these shrines manifest in the context of the threat posed by militants in the 1980s How did such popular practices reconfigure themselves when some important centres of Sufism were left behind in the West Punjab now Pakistan This book examines several of these questions and utilizes a combination of analytical tools

new theoretical tropes and an ethnographic approach to understand and situate popular Sufi shrines so that they are both historicized and spatialized. As such it lays out some crucial contours of the method and practice of understanding popular sacred spaces within India and elsewhere bridging the everyday and the metanarratives of power structures and state formation. This book will be useful to scholars, researchers and those engaged in interdisciplinary work in history, social anthropology, historical sociology, cultural studies, historical geography, religion and art history as well as those interested in Sufism and its shrines in South Asia.

The Female Voice in Sufi Ritual Shemeem Burney Abbas, 2010-06-04. The female voice plays a more central role in Sufi ritual, especially in the singing of devotional poetry, than in almost any other area of Muslim culture. Female singers perform sufiana kalam or mystical poetry at Sufi shrines and in concerts, folk festivals and domestic life, while male singers assume the female voice when singing the myths of heroines in qawwali and sufiana kalam. Yet despite the centrality of the female voice in Sufi practice throughout South Asia and the Middle East, it has received little scholarly attention and is largely unknown in the West. This book presents the first in-depth study of the female voice in Sufi practice in the subcontinent of Pakistan and India. Shemeem Burney Abbas investigates the rituals at the Sufi shrines and looks at women's participation in them as well as male performers' use of the female voice. The strengths of the book are her use of interviews with both prominent and grassroots female and male musicians and her transliteration of audio and videotaped performances. Through them she draws vital connections between oral culture and the written Sufi poetry that the musicians sing for their audiences. This research clarifies why the female voice is so important in Sufi practice and underscores the many contributions of women to Sufism and its rituals.

Encyclopaedia of Untouchables Ancient, Medieval and Modern Raj Kumar, 2008. The book entitled Encyclopaedia of Untouchables Ancient, Medieval and Modern compiled in 2 volumes witnesses to the fact that how the Brahminical ideology used to behave with the poor people of the Father, which is totally unbearable to a normal person even though they used to clean the cities' latrines, skin of the dead animals which were owned by the Brahmins. Hence the Dalit literature is not a simple literature; it is associated with a movement to bring about a change in the society by working personally to realize the basic facts of the life, but Brahmins are only the philosophers of their literature, working for their personal benefit, not for others. It has established its own strong tradition with anti-caste or untouchables thinkers like Buddha, Ved Vyasa, Valmiki, Qutub ud Din Aibak, Balban, Balban Firoz Shah, Tuglaq Barani, the great writer Amir Timur, Sultan Sikandar of Kashmir, Zain ul Abidin, Mirza Haidar Dughlat, Babar, Ravidas, Akbar, Guru Nanak, Kabir, Phule, Dr B R Ambedkar, many more as its signposts.
