He Who Flees The Lion:

Bedouin Folktales from the North of Israel Yoel Shalom Perez, Judith Rosenhouse, 2022-09-06 Galilee has been a crossroads of cultures religions and languages for centuries as illustrated in these fascinating Bedouin folktales which offer excellent examples of the Arabic narrative tradition of the Middle East Bedouin Folktales from the North of Israel collects nearly 60 traditional folktales told mostly by women that have been carefully translated in the same colloquial style in which they were told These stories are grouped into themes of love and devotion ghouls and demons and animal stories The work also includes phonetic transcription and linguistic annotation Accompanying each folktale is a comprehensive ethnographic folkloristic and linguistic commentary placing the tales in context with details on Galilee Bedouin dialects and the tribes themselves A rich multifaceted collection Bedouin Folktales from the North of Israel is an invaluable resource for linguists folklorists anthropologists and any reader interested in a tradition of storytelling handed down through the centuries The Humorous Parson E. J. Silverton, 1874 The Uncoiling Python Harold Scheub, 2010-08-10 The oral and written traditions of the Africans of South Africa have provided an understanding of their past and the way the past relates to the present These traditions continue to shape the past by the present and vice versa From the time colonial forces first came to the region in 1487 oral and written traditions have been a bulwark against what became 350 years of colonial rule characterized by the racist policies of apartheid The Uncoiling Python South African Storytellers and Resistance is the first in depth study of how Africans used oral traditions as a means of survival against European domination Africans resisted colonial rule from the beginning They participated in open insurrections and other subversive activities in order to withstand the daily humiliations of colonial rule Perhaps the most effective and least apparent expression of subversion was through indigenous storytelling and poetic traditions Harold Scheub has collected the stories and poetry of the Xhosa Zulu Swati and Ndebele peoples to present a fascinating analysis of how the apparently harmless tellers of tales and creators of poetry acted as front line soldiers The Oral Nature of the Homeric Simile William C. Scott, 2018-08-14 Pride of Eden Taylor Brown, 2025-08-22 The enthralling new novel from the acclaimed author of Fallen Land The River of Kings and Gods of Howl Mountain Retired racehorse jockey and Vietnam veteran Anse Caulfield rescues exotic big cats elephants and other creatures for Little Eden a wildlife sanctuary near the abandoned ruins of a failed development on the Georgia coast But when Anse's prized lion escapes he becomes obsessed with replacing her even if the means of rescue aren't exactly legal Anse is joined by Malaya a former soldier who hunted rhino and elephant poachers in Africa Lope whose training in falconry taught him to pilot surveillance drones and Tyler a veterinarian who has found a place in Anse's obsessive world From the rhino wars of Africa to the battle for the Baghdad Zoo from the edges of the Okefenokee Swamp to a remote private island off the Georgia coast Anse and his team battle an underworld of smugglers gamblers breeders trophy hunters and others who exploit exotic game Pride of Eden is Taylor Brown's brilliant fever dream of a novel set on the eroding edge of civilization rooted in dramatic events linked not only with each character's past but to the prehistory of America where great creatures roamed the continent and continue to inhabit our collective imagination
