

The book cover features a vertical illustration. At the top, a bright, multi-colored triangular light source (yellow, orange, and red) emits a powerful beam of light that tapers as it descends. The beam is surrounded by a wide, conical field of smaller, shimmering light rays in shades of blue, green, and yellow. Below this light display, a dark, curved horizon line separates the celestial scene from a foreground of dark, silhouetted hills or mountains. The overall background is a deep, dark blue, suggesting a night sky or outer space.
