

Health Care Careers

Healthcare is one of the highest growth industries in the entire world. The healthcare market is in high demand now more than ever and is providing over 14 million jobs. Ten of the top 20 fastest growing jobs are in healthcare. Professionals in Health Care work together to provide medical care to people worldwide. They're also responsible for developing new technology and medical procedures to enhance health. Because the healthcare industry is so diverse, hundreds of thousands of job opportunities are available in this industry every year.

As healthcare continues to expand in the United States, there will be more need for employees for many years to come. Over the next decade, it is estimated that healthcare will generate over 3 million new jobs, more than any other industry, this due to the rapid growth of aging U.S. population. While the large majority of healthcare professionals and workers have jobs that do not require a 4 year college degree, most health diagnosing and healthcare practitioners are highly educated.
