International Perspectives on School Settings, Education Policy and Digital Strategies Annika Wilmers, Sieglinde Jörnitz, 2021-02-15 An exchange on education ideas has shaped the transatlantic discourse in education for a long time Over the past two decades education science has increasingly become networked internationally Since 2015 the Office for International Cooperation in Education at DIPF Leibniz Institute for Research and Information in Education has organized international sessions on education research at the Annual Meetings of the American Educational Research Association thus providing a floor for transatlantic exchange on current research topics The volume gives an overview of the transatlantic activities in education research with regard to these sessions representing a collection of topics ranging from school development over the use of large scale assessment and digital data in education to questions related to migration and public education or the economization of education At the same time the volume offers a reflection on the assets and obstacles of international exchange

International Perspectives and Empirical Findings on Child Participation Tali Gal, Benedetta Duramy, 2015-03-20 This book provides a much needed first broad portrayal of how child participation is implemented in practice today Bringing together 19 chapters written by prominent authors from the United States Canada the United Kingdom Ireland New Zealand Australia and Israel the book includes descriptions of programs that engage children and youth in decision making processes as well as insightful findings regarding what children their families and professionals think about these programs

International

Perspectives on Student Behavior Charles J. Russo, Izak Oosthuizen, Charl C. Wolhuter, 2014-12-23 The second volume of companion books on comparative student discipline identifies the best practices in dealing with student misconduct on six continents in a legally sound manner It is essential for educators to examine national as well as international practices addressing student misconduct in schools because learner misbehavior often has a detrimental effect on the quality of teaching and learning in elementary and secondary schools The countries covered are Brazil China Malaysia Turkey and South Africa

International Perspectives on Engineering Education Steen Hyldgaard Christensen, Christelle Didier, Andrew Jamison, Martin Meganck, Carl Mitcham, Byron Newberry, 2015-05-25 This inclusive cross cultural study rethinks the nexus between engineering education and context In so doing the book offers a reflection on contextual boundaries with an overall boundary crossing ambition and juxtaposes important cases of critical participation within engineering education with sophisticated scholarly reflection on both opportunities and discontents Whether and in what way engineering education is or ought to be contextualized or de contextualized is an object of heated debate among engineering educators The uniqueness of this study is that this debate is given comprehensive coverage presenting both instrumentally inclined as well as radical positions on transforming engineering education In contextualizing engineering education this book offers diverse commentary from a range of disciplinary meta and interdisciplinary perspectives on how cultural professional institutional and educational systems contexts shape histories structural dynamics ideologies and challenges as well as new pathways in engineering education Topics addressed include examining engineering education in countries ranging from India to America to racial and gender equity in engineering education and incorporating social awareness into the area Using context as bridge this book confronts engineering education head on Contending engineering ideologies and corresponding views on context are juxtaposed with contending discourses of reform The uniqueness of the book is that it brings together scholars from the humanities the social sciences and engineering from Europe both East and West with the United States China Brazil India and Australia

International Perspectives on Home Education P. Rothermel, 2015-03-23 This collection brings together the research of an eclectic mix of leading names in home based education studies worldwide It uses home education to explore contemporary education outside of school and place it into a global political and critical context and will be essential reading for home educators academics and policymakers alike early childhood in their country including economic and political transitions that lead to changes in early childhood provision and policy The book provides essential takeaways for early childhood educators researchers early childhood organisations policy makers and those interested to know more about early childhood education within an international perspective

International Perspectives on the Goals of Universal Basic and Secondary Education Joel E. Cohen, Martin B.

Malin, 2009-12-04 Although universal schooling has been adopted as a goal by international organizations bilateral aid agencies national governments and non profit organizations little sustained international attention has been devoted to the purposes or goals of universal education What is universal primary and secondary education intended to accomplish This book which grew out of a project of the American Academy of Arts Sciences offers views from Asia Africa Europe North America and South America on the purposes of universal education while considering diverse cultures religions and professions It is the first book in which renowned authors from around the world have proposed considered and debated goals of basic and secondary education engaging in a constructive dialogue on one of the most pressing issues facing education today

International Perspectives on Police Education and Training Perry Stanislas, 2013-10-30 Training and education constitutes the backbone of a significant amount of police activity and expenditure in developing the most important resources involved in policing work It also involves an array of actors and agencies such as educational institutions which have a long and important relationship with police organizations This book examines the role of education and training in the development of police in the contemporary world Bringing together specialist scholars and practitioners from around the world the book examines training methods in the UK the USA Australia Canada China France Hungary India the Netherlands St Lucia and Sweden The book throws light on important aspects of public service policing and new areas of public and private provision through the lens of training and development It will be of interest to policing scholars and those involved in professional and organizational development worldwide

International Perspectives on Teacher Education Tony Townsend, 2016-03-16 This book explores major factors impacting on teacher education in recent times It uses examples from a broad range of international contributors who compare larger countries such as the USA England and Australia with their smaller partners Canada Scotland and New Zealand demonstrating the substantial differences existent in all three cases They also contrast the approaches of the countries that are members of the European Union with those that are not and discuss the special circumstances of developing countries using Malawi as a case study The international dimension of the book allows it to address the impact of globalisation on teacher education with attention given to subjects such as the implications of rapid technological change the movement of teachers and students on a global level and the drive to improve standards in various parts of the world The book asks key questions such as whether teaching is a craft or a profession and whether teacher educators view themselves as practitioners or researchers The question of how the profession is viewed from outside is also addressed highlighting the lack of trust displayed by politicians and communities towards both teachers and teacher educators The final chapter looks to the future and considers strategies for dealing with it This book was originally published as a special issue of the Journal of Education for Teaching From Vocational To Higher Education: An International Perspective Moodie, Gavin, 2008-10-01 This book discusses current issues in vocational and higher education and the relations between them
