What are values Where do our values come from How do our values make a difference to education For educational leaders to achieve distinction in their practice it is vital to establish their own clear sense of values rather than reacting to the implicit values of others This engaging book guides readers in thinking for themselves about the values they bring to their task and the values they intend to promote Crucially the book promotes critical thought and constructive analysis about the underlying values involved with aims and moral purpose in education individual qualities in educational leadership vision in education school ethos and culture the school as an educational community By inviting reflection using valuable case studies and work through activities as well as referring to a wide range of academic literature this book will be an important resource for those working towards professional qualifications such as NPQH and invaluable for anyone aspiring to excellence in educational leadership Graham Haydon is Senior Lecturer in Philosophy of Education at the Institute of Education University of London where he teaches on Masters courses in Values in Education and Applied Educational Leadership and Management

Formation and Development for Catholic School Leaders: The principal as educational leader Maria J. Ciriello, 1998-04 Addresses seven competencies in leadership and nine in curriculum and instruction Includes more than 150 sources in the bibliography Second International Handbook of Educational Leadership and Administration Kenneth A. Leithwood, P. Hallinger, 2012-12-06 The first International Handbook of Educational Leadership and Administration Leithwood et al was published in 1996 and quickly became something of a best seller for reference works within education Such success we suggest was at least partly due to the unprecedented global waves of concern for improving schools launched in the mid 1980 s combined with a widespread belief in leadership as the single most powerful contribution to such improvement The roots of this belief can be found in evidence produced by the early effective schools research although there is a romance with leadership as an explanation for success in many non school enterprises as well During the two year period during which this current handbook was being written activity in the realms of school leadership school improvement and leadership development gained further momentum The English government created its new National College of School Leadership and several Asian nations announced new initiatives in leadership selection preparation and development      Developing School Leaders in the Pacific Narsamma Lingam, Govinda Ishwar Lingam, 2023-08-31 This book provides detailed insights on the training and development for Pacific Island school leaders It draws extensively on original empirical research that explores school leaders perceptions of how leadership and management training impacted their professional practices and how these practices in turn impacted the dynamics of school operations This book addresses a critical need to understand how to support leadership development for all Pacific schools but especially in schools that are faced with the increasing challenges of learning and teaching conditions In small island developing states in the Pacific region school leaders face a myriad of challenges due to limited human and material resources and a fragile economic base Written by Pacific Islander authors this book provides insights from different countries in the Pacific Islands It shows how contextual challenges can exert enormous pressure on school leaders who are leading and managing schools without any leadership preparation Given the importance of effective leadership practices and its impact on student learning outcomes this book aims to be a source of reference for practitioners and educational authorities who have a vested interest in the provision of quality education in the Pacific region and beyond      Teacher Research and Educational Reform Sandra Hollingsworth, Hugh Sockett, 1994      The Palgrave Handbook of Educational Leadership and Management Discourse Fenwick W. English, 2022-10-13 This Handbook explores the discourse within the field of educational leadership and management It provides a clear analysis of the current field as well as older foundational ideas and newer concepts which are beginning to permeate the discussion The field of educational leadership and management has long acknowledged that educational contexts include a variety of leaders beyond school principals and other school officials such as informal and middle level leaders By looking at the knowledge dynamic rather than a static knowledge base this Handbook allows research to be presented in its multidimensional evolving reality      Critical Conversations in Teacher Education Helen Stokes, Larissa McLean Davies, 2025-05-26 Drawing on research conducted broadly in the Australian educational space chapter authors discuss the areas of culturally responsive practice AI climate change classroom environments micro credentials and teacher retention      New Perspectives in Educational Leadership Sonya Douglass Horsford, 2010 New Perspectives in Educational Leadership examines educational administration and leadership within the complex social political and community contexts that inform and influence the work of today s educational leaders With particular attention to the implications and larger contexts of shifting demographics high stakes accountability and globalization on schools and society in the twenty first century this volume seeks to advance lines of inquiry presented in other areas of education research that have yet to be fully explored or imagined in the field of educational leadership This unique blend of empirical theoretical and conceptual research by both established and emerging scholars in the field directly acknowledges and addresses the demands of leading increasingly diverse and complex school communities Topics include the social and cultural dynamics of leadership reflective practice politics of equity and adequacy critical servant leadership and the possibilities of transformative leadership within these dynamic educational contexts As a primary or supplementary text in educational administration leadership and foundations courses New Perspectives in Educational Leadership provides a much needed complement to the traditional topics of instructional leadership and education management given the expanding and increasingly complex conditions that face educational administrators and school leaders today
