Jack O'Gorman

Elias Ebentia For Learners Of English From Arabic:

Issues in English Education in the Arab World Rahma Al-Mahrooqi, Christopher Denman, 2014-11-19 Though diverse the Arab world boasts a unique culture and native language both of which are unlike those found in English speaking countries Perhaps due to the nature of these differences Arab Western relations have been described as existing on one of the world's great cultural fault lines Debate about the potential effects both positive and negative of English medium education and the learning of English in the region's schools and universities is one expression of this Even as debate continues issues of politics culture social mobility and identity are played out in the English language classrooms of the Arab world on a daily basis The current volume explores some of the concerns related to the place of English and English medium education in the Arab world It examines issues of the relationship between English Arabic cultural identity and power in the region within a historical and contemporary framework the experiences of learners from Arabic medium secondary schools adjusting to English medium colleges and the challenges and potential rewards of promoting student centered classrooms and technology in traditionally teacher centered environments These issues are explored from the perspectives of teachers students researchers and other stakeholders in Oman Saudi Arabia the UAE and Sudan Reference Sources for Small and Medium-Sized Libraries Jack O'Gorman, 2014-02-25 Focusing on new reference sources published since 2008 and reference titles that have retained their relevance this new edition brings O'Gorman's complete and authoritative guide to the best reference sources for small and medium sized academic and public libraries fully up to date Annual List of New and Important Books Added to the Public Library of the City of Boston Boston Public Library, 1906 Shemlan James Craig, 2016-07-27 Shemlan a small once unknown village in the hills overlooking Beirut became notorious throughout the Middle East when Bertram Thomas chose it as the location for the Middle East Centre for Arab Studies MECAS in 1947 The knowledge that a western government was taking pains to teach its citizens Arabic and inform them of Arab history society and religion made the Arabs suspicious The success of MECAS in producing specialists who were the envy of other governments produced doubt and anxiety The power of MECAS to attract British but also foreign diplomats and businessmen should have made it a profitable enterprise instead there was constant penny pinching and reluctance to invest In retrospect it looks like an excellent idea developed by improvisation through its early troubles which was then allowed to die in its prime Was it yet another example of a British invention unexploited Post-War Anglophone Lebanese Fiction Syrine Hout, 2012-09-30 This book examines the phenomenon of the post civil war Anglophone Lebanese fictional narrative The Islamic Review Khwajah Kamal al-Din, 1971 The Essential Unity of All Religions Bhagavan Das, 1932-01-01 An examination of the similar truths in the religions of the world Topic include Scientific Religion Divine Will the Nature of God Evolution Prayer and the Sacraments Catalogue Bernard Quaritch (Firm), 1922 Islamic Review , 1970

Identifying as Arab in Canada Houda Asal, 2020-10-11T00:00:00Z While Arabs now attract considerable attention from media the state and sociological studies their history in Canada remains little known Identifying as Arab in Canada begins to rectify this invisibilization by exploring the migration from Machrek the Middle East to Canada from the late 19th century through the 1970s Houda Asal breathes life into this migratory history and the people who made the journey and examines the public collective existence they created in Canada in order to understand both the identity Arabs have constructed for themselves here and the identity that has been constructed for them by the Canadian state Using archival research media analysis laws and statistics and a series of interviews Asal offers a thorough examination of the institutions these migrants and their descendants built and the various ways they expressed their identity and organized their religious social and political lives Identifying as Arab in Canada offers an impressively researched but accessibly written much needed glimpse into the long history of the Arab population in Canada

The Oxford Handbook of Arab Novelistic Traditions Wail S. Hassan,2017-08-01

The Oxford Handbook of Arab Novelistic Traditions is the most comprehensive treatment of the subject to date In scope the book encompasses the genesis of the Arabic novel in the second half of the nineteenth century and its development to the present in every Arabic speaking country and in Arab immigrant destinations on six continents Editor Wail S Hassan and his contributors describe a novelistic phenomenon which has pre modern roots stretching centuries back within the Arabic cultural tradition and branching outward geographically and linguistically to every Arab country and to Arab writing in many languages around the world The first of three innovative dimensions of this Handbook consists of examining the ways in which the Arabic novel emerged out of a syncretic merger between Arabic and European forms and techniques rather than being a simple importation of the latter and rejection of the former as early critics of the Arabic novel claimed The second involves mapping the novel geographically as it took root in every Arab country developing into often distinct though overlapping and interconnected local traditions Finally the Handbook concerns the multilingual character of the novel in the Arab world and by Arab immigrants and their descendants around the world both in Arabic and in at least a dozen other languages The Oxford Handbook of Arab Novelistic Traditions reflects the current status of research in the broad field of Arab novelistic traditions and signals toward new directions of inquiry

The Routledge Handbook of Translation and Activism Rebecca Gould,Kayvan Tahmasebian,2020-06-02

The Routledge Handbook of Translation and Activism provides an accessible diverse and ground breaking overview of literary cultural and political translation across a range of activist contexts As the first extended collection to offer perspectives on translation and activism from a global perspective this handbook includes case studies and histories of oppressed and marginalised people from over twenty different languages The contributions will make visible the role of translation in promoting and enabling social change in promoting equality in fighting discrimination in supporting human rights and in challenging autocracy and injustice across the Middle East Africa

Latin America East Asia the US and Europe With a substantial introduction thirty one chapters and an extensive bibliography this Handbook is an indispensable resource for all activists translators students and researchers of translation and activism within translation and interpreting studies Great Britain and the East ,1923 Catalogue American Friends of the Middle East. Library,1961 Witnessing the Witness of War Crimes, Mass Murder, and Genocide Manuela Consonni,Philip Galland Nord,2023-07-24 Rethinking the concepts of witnessing and witness is highly relevant to the study of war crimes mass murder and genocide Through multiple readings the volume shows the meanings and functions of witnessing in a political and historical context marked by the emergence of multiculturalism The ultimate goal is the exploration of divergent and intersectional positions of the witness and witnessing as both concrete and hermeneutical categories As a result the mechanisms of social political and psychological oppression murder and genocide will become tangible and understandable with greater precision and finesse English Dictionaries, 800-1700 Werner Hüllen,2006-02-16 Between the beginnings of European lexicography and 1700 many glossaries and dictionaries were arranged not according to the alphabet but in a topical order which followed the influential paradigms of theology philosophy and natural history at that time Together with related text genres like treatises on terminology didactic dialogues and thesauri they constitute the topical or onomasiological tradition which is an important lexicographical tradition in its own right This book discusses the tradition s principles and origins and by way of illustration draws upon early glossaries treatises for the learning of foreign languages and didactic dialogues Later comprehensive works are presented as detailed in depth studies Professor H llen demonstrates that the English tradition is embedded in a complex Continental tradition whose important representatives such as Adrianus Junius and Comenius had a great influence on the English scene Nostalgia in Anglophone Arab Literature Tasnim Qutait,2021-04-22 This book offers an in depth engagement with the growing body of Anglophone Arab fiction in the context of theoretical debates around memory and identity Against the critical tendency to dismiss nostalgia as a sentimental trope of immigrant narratives Qutait sheds light on the creative uses to which it is put in the works of Rabih Alameddine Ahdaf Soueif Hisham Matar Leila Aboulela Randa Jarrar Rawi Hage and others Arguing for the necessity of theorising cultural memory beyond Eurocentric frameworks the book demonstrates how Arab novelists writing in English draw on nostalgia as a touchstone of Arabic literary tradition from pre Islamic poetry to the present Qutait situates Anglophone Arab fiction within contentious debates about the place of the past in the Arab world tracing how writers have deployed nostalgia as an aesthetic strategy to deal with subject matter ranging from the Islamic golden age the era of anti colonial struggle the failures of the postcolonial state and of pan Arabism and the perennial issue of the diaspora s relationship to the homeland Making a contribution to the transnational turn in memory studies while focusing on a region underrepresented in this field this book will be of interest for researchers interested in cultural memory postcolonial studies and the literatures of the Middle East
