Elihu Yale The American Nabob Of Queen:

Elihu Yale, the American Nabob of Queen Square Hiram Bingham, 1968 Elihu Yale Hiram Bingham, 1999 The Alchemy of Empire Rajani Sudan, 2016-06-01 Named Top 6 South Asia studies publications of 2016 by the British Association for South Asian Studies The Alchemy of Empire unravels the non European origins of Enlightenment science Focusing on the abject materials of empire building this study traces the genealogies of substances like mud mortar ice and paper as well as forms of knowledge like inoculation Showing how East India Company employees deployed the paradigm of alchemy in order to make sense of the new worlds they confronted Rajani Sudan argues that the Enlightenment was born largely out of Europe's and Britain's sense of insecurity and inferiority in the early modern world Plumbing the depths of the imperial archive Sudan uncovers the history of the British Enlightenment in the literary artifacts of the long eighteenth century from the correspondence of the East India Company and the papers of the Royal Society to the poetry of Alexander Pope and the novels of Jane Austen Slave Portraiture in the Atlantic World Agnes Lugo-Ortiz, Angela Rosenthal, 2013-09-30 The first book to focus on the individualized portrayal of enslaved people from the late sixteenth century to abolition in 1888

Cultures of United States Imperialism Amy Kaplan, Donald E. Pease, 1993 Cultures of United States Imperialism represents a major paradigm shift that will remap the field of American Studies Pointing to a glaring blind spot in the basic premises of the study of American culture leading critics and theorists in cultural studies history anthropology and literature reveal the denial of empire at the heart of American Studies Challenging traditional definitions and periodizations of imperialism this volume shows how international relations reciprocally shape a dominant imperial culture at home and how imperial relations are enacted and contested within the United States Drawing on a broad range of interpretive practices these essays range across American history from European representations of the New World to the mass media spectacle of the Persian Gulf War The volume breaks down the boundary between the study of foreign relations and American culture to examine imperialism as an internal process of cultural appropriation and as an external struggle over international power The contributors explore how the politics of continental and international expansion conquest and resistance have shaped the history of American culture just as much as the cultures of those it has dominated By uncovering the dialectical relationship between American cultures and international relations this collection demonstrates the necessity of analyzing imperialism as a political or economic process inseparable from the social relations and cultural representations of gender race ethnicity and class at home Contributors Lynda Boose Mary Yoko Brannen Bill Brown William Cain Eric Cheyfitz Vicente Diaz Frederick Errington Kevin Gaines Deborah Gewertz Donna Haraway Susan Jeffords Myra Jehlen Amy Kaplan Eric Lott Walter Benn Michaels Donald E. Pease Vicente Rafael Michael Rogin Jos David Saldívar Richard Slotkin Doris Sommer Gauri Viswanathan Priscilla Wald Kenneth Warren Christopher P. Wilson The Yale Indian Joel Pfister, 2009-06-12 A biography of Henry Roe Cloud c 1884-1950 a Winnebago educator scholar and minister who was one of the most renowned Native

Americans of his time Britain and the Muslim World Gerald MacLean,2010-10-12 Based on papers presented at an international three day conference sponsored by the British Academy and held at the Institute for Arab and Islamic Studies at the University of Exeter in April 2009 this collection of essays provides a comprehensive and accessible synthesis of the most advanced specialist and scholarly knowledge to date concerning historical perspectives on relations between Britain and the Muslim World Ranging from the early modern period to the present day the essays collected here represent work by leading writers and scholars from relevant fields history international relations economics religion law art history and design film studies and sociology as well as literary and cultural studies These essays explore the historical impacts of cross cultural encounters between Islam and Britain by variously addressing the question of how relations between Britain and the Muslim world in the past have brought us to our current situation and in some cases by proposing directions for necessary further consideration and research English Literature, Volume 2 Louis A. Landa,2015-12-08 Two volumes containing the annual bibliographies of 18th century scholarship published in the Philological Quarterly An excellent aid to the student of 18th century literature Saturday Review Volume 2 1939 1950 includes consolidated index for both volumes Originally published in 1952 The Princeton Legacy Library uses the latest print on demand technology to again make available previously out of print books from the distinguished backlist of Princeton University Press These editions preserve the original texts of these important books while presenting them in durable paperback and hardcover editions The goal of the Princeton Legacy Library is to vastly increase access to the rich scholarly heritage found in the thousands of books published by Princeton University Press since its founding in 1905 Yale and Slavery David W. Blight,2024-02-16 A comprehensive look at how slavery and resistance to it have shaped Yale University Award winning historian David W Blight with the Yale and Slavery Research Project answers the call to investigate Yale University s historical involvement with slavery the slave trade and abolition This narrative history demonstrates the importance of slavery in the making of this renowned American institution of higher learning Drawing on wide ranging archival materials Yale and Slavery extends from the century before the college s founding in 1701 to the dedication of its Civil War memorial in 1915 while engaging with the legacies and remembrance of this complex story The book brings into focus the enslaved and free Black people who have been part of Yale s history from the beginning but too often ignored in official accounts These individuals and their descendants worked at Yale petitioned and fought for freedom and dignity built churches schools and antislavery organizations and were among the first Black students to transform the university from the inside Always alive to the surprises and ironies of the past Yale and Slavery presents a richer and more complete history of Yale the third oldest college in the country showing how pillars of American higher education even in New England emerged over time intertwined with the national and international history of racial slavery A Taste for Empire and Glory Philip Lawson,2020-09-10 In the decade and a half before his untimely death at 46 Philip Lawson had already achieved more than many historians This posthumously published collection brings together his work on the British overseas expansion during the long 18th century and includes two previously unpublished essays The first articles deal with general issues of approach and interpretation with Canada and the thirteen colonies and with India and the empire of tea The final essays illustrate Anglo Indian relations and the tea trade showing the relationship between the establishment of Indian tea plantations the growth of the tea trade and the political and cultural impact of tea drinking on the British and their colonists Taken together these studies make an outstanding contribution to the field important to anyone interested in the history of Hanoverian Britain as an imperial power

Transnational Lives D. Deacon, P. Russell, A. Woollacott, 2010-01-29 The transnationalism of ordinary lives threatens the stability of national identity and unsettles the framework of national histories and biography This book takes mobility not nation as its frame and captures a rich array of lives from the elite to the subaltern that have crossed national racial and cartographic boundaries

The English Gentleman Merchant at Work Søren Mentz, 2005 During the seventeenth and eighteenth centuries servants in the East India Company established a private English trading network that was successful and highly competitive How was this development maintained seeing that the group of private merchants was constantly changing The answer must be found in the close ties connecting Madras with the City of London London was the financial centre of the British Empire as well as the generator of overseas expansion Colonial societies in the West Indies and North America were economically and socially dependent upon the metropolis and so was Madras This book places the activities of the private merchants in Madras within the framework of the first British Empire It focuses on a hitherto neglected field of study uncovering a private trading network a diaspora built on gentlemanly capitalism trust and ethnicity

The Silk Roads Peter Frankopan, 2016-02-16 INTERNATIONAL BESTSELLER Far more than a history of the Silk Roads this book is truly a revelatory new history of the world promising to destabilize notions of where we come from and where we are headed next A rare book that makes you question your assumptions about the world The Wall Street Journal From the Middle East and its political instability to China and its economic rise the vast region stretching eastward from the Balkans across the steppe and South Asia has been thrust into the global spotlight in recent years Frankopan teaches us that to understand what is at stake for the cities and nations built on these intricate trade routes we must first understand their astounding pasts Frankopan realigns our understanding of the world pointing us eastward It was on the Silk Roads that East and West first encountered each other through trade and conquest leading to the spread of ideas cultures and religions From the rise and fall of empires to the spread of Buddhism and the advent of Christianity and Islam right up to the great wars of the twentieth century this book shows how the fate of the West has always been inextricably linked to the East Also available The New Silk Roads a timely exploration of the dramatic and profound changes our world is undergoing right now as seen from the perspective of the rising powers of the East

Chronicle of the Pulitzer Prizes for Biography Heinz-D. Fischer, 2011-11-30 Volume 20 of the series describes the development of the award for Biographies and Autobiographies from 1917 through 2006 In addition the complete jury reports from this period are reprinted by facsimile So it can be documented how the annual deliberations went until a winner was selected Among the prize winners were John F Kennedy before his presidency the diplomat George F Kennan or the aviator Charles Lindbergh New Earth Histories Alison Bashford, Emily M. Kern, Adam Bobbette, 2023-11-06 A kaleidoscopic rethinking of how we come to know the earth This book brings the history of the geosciences and world cosmologies together exploring many traditions including Chinese Pacific Islamic South and Southeast Asian conceptions of the earth's origin and makeup Together the chapters ask How have different ideas about the sacred animate and earthly changed modern environmental sciences How have different world traditions understood human and geological origins How does the inclusion of multiple cosmologies change the meaning of the Anthropocene and the global climate crisis By carefully examining these questions New Earth Histories sets an ambitious agenda for how we think about the earth The chapters consider debates about the age and structure of the earth how humans and earth systems interact and how empire has been conceived in multiple traditions The methods the authors deploy are diverse from cultural history and visual and material studies to ethnography geography and Indigenous studies and the effect is to highlight how earth knowledge emerged from historically specific situations New Earth Histories provides both a framework for studying science at a global scale and fascinating examples to educate as well as inspire future work Essential reading for students and scholars of earth science history environmental humanities history of science and religion and science and empire Wanstead House Hannah Armstrong, 2022-03-01 In c 1713 Sir Richard Child heir to a mercantile fortune commissioned Colen Campbell to build Wanstead House one of the noblest houses not only in England but in Europe Campbell's innovative classical facade was widely influential and sowed the seeds for English Palladianism Its opulent interior by William Kent was equal to Kensington Palace and its extensive gardens were attributed to leading landscape designers George London and Humphry Repton Wanstead's glory days came to an end in 1822 when a major sale of its contents was arranged to pay off financial debts Two years later the house was demolished its building fabric dispersed far and wide A large crater on an east London golf course is all that remains of this once princely mansion Based on scholarly research Wanstead House East London's Lost Palace provides the first illustrated history of the lost Georgian estate charting the meteoric rise and fall of the Child dynasty By restoring Wanstead's reputation amongst the leading houses of the era this book demonstrates that those lost in actuality should by no means be lost to history Segregation Carl H. Nightingale, 2012-05-01 When we think of segregation what often comes to mind is apartheid South Africa or the American South in the age of Jim Crow two societies fundamentally premised on the concept of the separation of the races But as Carl H Nightingale shows us in this magisterial history segregation is everywhere deforming cities and societies worldwide Starting with segregation's ancient roots and what the archaeological evidence reveals about humanity's long standing use of urban divisions to reinforce political and economic inequality Nightingale then moves to the world of European colonialism It was there he shows segregation based on color and eventually on race took hold the British East India Company for example split Calcutta into White Town and Black Town As we follow Nightingale's story around the globe we see that division replicated from Hong Kong to Nairobi Baltimore to San Francisco and more The turn of the twentieth century saw the most aggressive segregation movements yet as white communities almost everywhere set to rearranging whole cities along racial lines Nightingale focuses closely on two striking examples Johannesburg with its state sponsored separation and Chicago in which the goal of segregation was advanced by the more subtle methods of real estate markets and housing policy For the first time ever the majority of humans live in cities and nearly all those cities bear the scars of segregation This unprecedented ambitious history lays bare our troubled past and sets us on the path to imagining the better more equal cities of the future

The Oriental Religions and American Thought Carl T. Jackson, 1981 International Dictionary of University Histories Carol J. Summerfield, Mary Elizabeth Devine, 1998 First Published in 1998 Routledge is an imprint of Taylor Francis an informa company Cavendish Christa Jungnickel, Russell McCormmach, 1996 The Cavendishes flourished during the high tide of British aristocracy following the revolution of 1688-89 and the case can be made that this aristocracy knew its finest hour when Henry Cavendish gently laid his delicate weights in the pan of his incomparable precision balance For this it took two generations and two kinds of invention one in social forms and the other in scientific technique This biography tells how it came to pass Book jacket
