

INTERMEDIATE CROSS

BACKGROUND FOR TEACHERS

THE TEACHING MINISTRY IN EPISCOPAL CHURCHES

In the words of the Baptismal Covenant, we promise to “continue in the apostles’ teaching ; fellowship, in the breaking of bread, and in the prayers” (The Book of Common Prayer, p. 30). The Holy Eucharist, the central act of worship for Christians, unites us with Jesus. Again and again as we partake of this sacrament, we remember and celebrate the life and ministry of Jesus Christ.

We are called to follow Jesus, the Son of God, who lived among us as teacher, preacher, ; healer. Through his powerful example, Christians have come to understand that teaching is fundamental to our faith.

No precise definition or set of rules governs teaching in the Church. For all ages, as teachers ; learners come to know one another, a special relationship develops. What transpires between them becomes a kind of “spiritual staff of life”—organic, dynamic, wonderful, and meaningful.

The Children’s Charter for the Church, developed by the Office of Children’s Ministries and a number of dioceses, calls for three responses to the children in our care: Nurture of the Child—treasure each child as a gift from God; Ministry to the Child—to recognize and foster children’s spirituality and unique gifts; and Ministry of the Child—to appreciate children’s abilities ; and readiness to represent Christ and his church. All three responses will have an impact on relationships
