Equity Environment Efficiency Ethics And Economics In Urban Australia:

Equity, Environment, Efficiency Patrick Nicol Troy,2000 The book offers a timely re evaluation of the connection between ethics and economics It argues that efficiency is not an end in itself but rather a means to socially desirable ends It s essential reading for all those involved in policy development housing markets environment groups planning and housing departments and local authorities

Reconstructing Urban Economics Franklin Obeng-Odoom,2016-08-15 Neoclassical economics the intellectual bedrock of modern capitalism faces growing criticisms as many of its key assumptions and policy prescriptions are systematically challenged Yet there remains one field of economics where these limitations continue virtually unchallenged the study of cities and regions in built environment economics In this book Franklin Obeng Odoom draws on institutional Geogist and Marxist economics to clearly but comprehensively show what the key issues are today in thinking about urban economics In doing so he demonstrates the widespread tensions and contradictions in the status quo showing how to reconstruct urban economics in order to create a more just society and environment

Australian Urban Policy Robert Freestone,Bill Randolph,Wendy Steele,2024-03-19 Urban Australia confronts numerous challenges in the 21st century climate change housing transport greenspace social inequality and governance among them While state and local governments wrestle with these issues they are continent wide and require national leadership direction and participation As a highly urbanised country without a national approach to urban policy Australia is an outlier Contributors to this book argue that this policy gap needs to be addressed They ask How have productive sustainable and liveable cities so far been enhanced Where have aspirations fallen short or produced negative outcomes And what approaches are emerging to challenge existing and devise new urban policy settings In the face of ongoing crises and escalating change the need for policy to quickly transform urban Australia is daunting Problems wicked in their complexity require innovative ethical solutions This book offers new ideas that challenge policy orthodoxy

Governance for Pro-Poor Urban Development Franklin Obeng-Odoom,2013-07-18 The world development institutions commonly present urban governance as an antidote to the so called urbanisation of poverty and parasitic urbanism in Africa Governance for Pro Poor Urban Development is a comprehensive and systematic analysis of the meaning nature and effects of urban governance in theory and in practice with a focus on Ghana a country widely regarded as an island of good governance in the sub region The book illustrates how diverse groups experience urban governance differently and contextualizes how this experience has worsened social differentiation in cities This book will be of great interest to students teachers and researchers in development studies and highly relevant to anyone with an interest in urban studies geography political economy sociology and African studies

Steering Sustainability in an Urbanising World Anitra Nelson,2016-04-01 Sustainability has become the key challenge for urban planners housing and infrastructure policy makers Citizens are increasingly encouraged to live more compactly in denser urban developments to use less water and other natural resources and to choose public transport While councils government agencies and private business invest in a broad range of promotions offering discounts on sustainable products and services uptake has been slow and the impacts marginal at a time when environmental stresses suggest that we must act fast This book examines this pressing problem in a holistic way discussing broad scale sustainability policies and programmes for achieving sustainable urban futures It brings together academics and practitioners to analyze the complexity and interdependence of principles models processes and practices of sustainability in a range of integrated sectors as well as the establishment and maintenance of sustainable physical infrastructure in cities

Urban Nation Robert Freestone, 2010-04-01 Urban Nation Australia's Planning Heritage provides the first national survey of the historical impact of urban planning and design on the Australian landscape This ambitious account looks at every state and territory from the earliest days of European settlement to the present day It identifies and documents hundreds of places parks public spaces redeveloped precincts neighbourhoods suburbs up to whole towns that contribute to the distinctive character of urban and suburban Australia It sets these significant planned landscapes within the broader context of both international design trends and Australian efforts at nation and city building

Dialectics of Space and Place across Virtual and Corporeal Topographies June Jordaan, Carl Haddrell, Christine Alegria, 2019-07-22 This volume was first published by Inter Disciplinary Press in 2016 Dialectics of Space and Place across Virtual and Corporeal Topographies explores the inter and multi disciplinary subjects of space and place in two parts Part 1 Virtual topographies of Space and Place is concerned with themes related to immaterial places and Part II Corporeal Topographies of Space and Place explores narratives of real and imagined experiences of places This volume underpinned by an array of philosophical positions provides a foundation for new and critical dialogues on space and place

Contemporary Issues in Gerontology Victor Minichiello, Irene Coulson, 2005 Written by leading international experts this book helps students and practitioners to better understand and cater for the needs of our ageing population It examines how services can be provided to meet the expectations and needs of a growing population of ageing citizens within a cost effective social justice and positive ageing framework how resources allocated to aged care can be distributed equitably to better meet the demands associated with housing retirement service provision and care how health promotion principles can contribute to a healthy older population Investigating current critical debates in health and social science the book explores innovative new approaches to aged care and ageing By using international examples and a multidisciplinary approach this comprehensive textbook provides a broad understanding of ageing from a social perspective and analyzes concepts of ageism healthy ageing and positive ageing

Real Estate, Construction and Economic Development in Emerging Market Economies Raymond Talinbe Abdulai, Franklin Obeng-Odoom, Edward Ochieng, Vida Maliene, 2015-10-23 Real Estate Construction and Economic Development in Emerging Market Economies examines the relationships between real estate and construction sectors and explores how each sector and the relationships between them affect economic development in emerging market economies EMEs Throughout the book the international team of contributors discuss topics as diverse as real estate finance and investment housing property development construction project management valuation sustainability and corporate real estate In doing so the book demonstrates how the relationship between construction and real estate impacts on economic development in countries such as Argentina Brazil Colombia China Ghana Nigeria Turkey Lithuania Hungary and Slovenia Topics include the role of real estate brokerage in improving the living standards of citizens the effect of a mineral boom on construction cycles real estate values and the socio economic conditions of people in boom towns and cities corporate real estate management practices and how they affect economic growth and the synergies between construction and real estate and how they in turn affect economic development This book will be of interest to those studying and researching real estate construction development studies urban economics and emerging market economies

Aging: Culture, Health, and Social Change David N. Weisstub, David C. Thomas, S. Gauthier, G.F. Tomossy, 2001-11-30 This is the first of three volumes on Aging conceived for the International Library of Ethics Law and the New Medicine Leading scholars from a range of disciplines contest some of the predominant paradigms on aging and critically assess modern trends in social health policy
