Ernest Bucklers The Mountain And The Valley:

The Mountain and the Valley Ernest Buckler, 1961-01-01 The Mountain and the Valley is an affectionate portrait of David Canaan a sensitive boy who becomes increasingly aware of the difference that sets him apart from his family and his neighbours David's desire to write is the secret that gives this haunting story its detailed focus and its poignant theme Set in the years leading up to World War II and against the backdrop of the Annapolis Valley's natural beauty The Mountain and the Valley captures a young man's spiritual awakening and the gradual growth of artistic vision Major Canadian Authors

David Stouck, 1988-01-01 Canadian literature in English presents a wealth of imaginative experience that belies the colonial status sometimes accorded the world's second largest country This revised and expanded edition of Major Canadian Authors provides an entrance into that realm Stouck's carefully integrated essays introduce the life and writings of eighteen foremost Canadian authors including Robertson Davies Margaret Laurence Sinclair Ross and Alice Munro The second edition adds a new chapter on Margaret Atwood updates the text and expands the reference guide to include more than sixty Canadian authors

Setting in the East David Craig Creelman, 2003 The Maritime region is thus torn between its memory of an earlier more prosperous and traditional social order and its present experience as a less fortunate modern industrial society These tensions are embedded in the Maritime character and have affected not only the lives of its people but the imaginations and texts of its writers BOOK JACKET

Literature of Nature Patrick D. Murphy, Terry Gifford, Katsunori Yamazato, 1998 First Published in 1999 Routledge is an imprint of Taylor Francis an informa company The mountain and the valley di Ernest Buckler Caggegi, Maria Lidia, 1994 The Canadian Modernists Meet Dean Jay Irvine, Dean Irvine, 2005 The Canadian Modernists Meet is a collection of new critical essays on major and rediscovered Canadian writers of the early to mid twentieth century F R Scott's well known poem The Canadian Authors Meet sets the theme for the volume a revisiting of English Canada's formative movements in modernist poetry fiction and drama As did Scott's poem Dean Irvine's collection raises questions about modernism and antimodernism nationalism and antinationalism gender and class originality and influence that remain central to contemporary research on early to mid twentieth century English Canadian literature The Canadian Modernists Meet is the first collection of its kind a gathering of texts by literary critics textual editors biographers literary historians and art historians whose collective research contributes to the study of modernism in Canada The collection stages a major reassessment of the origins and development of modernist literature in Canada its relationship to international modernist literature its regional variations its gender and class inflections and its connections to visual art architecture and film It presents a range of scholarly perspectives drawing upon the multidisciplinary that characterizes the international field of modernist studies Published in English Sculptures from Jagged Ore Carol Corbin, Eileen

Smith-Piovesan, 2001 More than tributes to Cape Breton women these sketches offer intimate descriptions of life on this Nova Scotia Island From women working in an Acadian fishing village to wives and daughters in the coal mining culture to the conversations of local quilters the Island inspires women as they craft their art stories work and communities This collection celebrates the contributions and hard work of women on this Island an Island that continues to shape inspire and test its people

Pink Snow Terry Goldie, 2003-03-17 Drawing on recent developments in gay studies and queer theory Pink Snow Homotextual Possibilities in Canadian Fiction offers new interpretations that focus on homoerotic resonances in literature Goldie brings an original engaging and sometimes provocative critical perspective to bear on both Canadian classics and less mainstream works Chapters include Wacousta John Richardson As For Me and My House Sinclair Ross Who Has Seen the Wind W O Mitchell The Mountain and the Valley Ernest Buckler Beautiful Losers Leonard Cohen Place D Armes Scott Symons Fifth Business Robertson Davies The Wars Timothy Findley Thy Mother s Glass David Watmough Funny Boy Shyam Selvadurai Kiss of the Fur Queen Tomson Highway

Unreal Country Glenn Willmott, 2002-08-29 Modernism is one of the great manifold movements in literature and the arts Responding with magnificent independence to inherited values and tastes and with radical novelty to the future varieties of modernism anxiously express both the ends of the Enlightenment and the beginnings of Postmodernism and thus the feeling of a crisis that continues to haunt contemporary life Modernity in Canada stretching from the turn of the century to the 1950s is a period marked by unprecedented urban and industrial growth by urban and rural immigration from around the world and by unique changes in power between regions classes races and sexes At the same time it is a period profoundly aware of the colonial past and its persistence for good or ill in the fragile economy and volatile culture of a new nation

A Few Acres of Snow Paul Simpson-Housley, G. B. Norcliffe, 1992-09 These 22 essays explore how poets artists and writers have addressed the physical essence of Canada

Writing with Intent Margaret Atwood, 2009-04-21 From one of the world s most passionately engaged and acclaimed literary citizens comes Writing with Intent the largest collection to date of Margaret Atwood s nonfiction ranging from 1983 to 2005 Composed of autobiographical essays cultural commentary book reviews and introductory pieces to great works of literature this is the award winning author s first book length nonfiction publication in twenty years Arranged chronologically these writings display the development of Atwood s worldview as the world around her changes Included are the Booker Prize winning author s reviews of books by John Updike Italo Calvino Toni Morrison and others as well as essays in which she remembers herself reading Virginia Woolf s To the Lighthouse at age nineteen and discusses the influence of George Orwell s 1984 on the writing of The Handmaid s Tale Atwood s New York Times Book Review piece that helped make Orhan Pamuk s Snow a bestseller can be found here as well as a look back on a family trip to Afghanistan just before the Soviet invasion and her Letter to America written after September 11 2001 The insightful and memorable pieces in this book serve as a testament to Atwood s career reminding readers why she is one of the most esteemed writers of our time

Moving Targets Margaret Atwood, 2006 The most precious treasure of this collection is that it gives us the rich back story and diverse range of influences on Margaret Atwood s work From the aunts who encouraged her nascent writing career to the influence of

George Orwell's Nineteen Eighty Four on The Handmaid's Tale we trace the movement of Atwood's fertile and curious mind in action over the years Atwood's controversial political pieces Napoleon's Two Biggest Mistakes and Letter to America both not so veiled warnings about the repercussions of the war in Iraq also appear alongside pieces that exhibit her active concern for the environment the North and the future of the human race Atwood also writes about her peers John Updike Marina Warner Italo Calvino Marian Engel Toni Morrison Angela Carter Gabriel Garcia Marquez Mordecai Richler Elmore Leonard and Ursula Le Guin This is a landmark volume from a major writer whose worldwide readership is in the millions and whose work has influenced and entertained generations Moving Targets is the companion volume to Second Words Canadians and Americans Katherine L. Morrison, 2017-11-30 Much can be learned from a nation's literature Examining three hundred years of cultural traditions Katherine L. Morrison a former American now a Canadian takes the reader through the historical political and sociological milieu of Canada and the United States to dispel misconceptions that they share near identical social attitudes and historical experiences To most Americans and much of the rest of the world America and Canada differ little except in terms of climate It is true that they share a common British heritage and immigration patterns but there are subtle cultural differences between the two countries These may appear insignificant to Americans but they are not insignificant to Canadians Comparing mythologies each of the countries share about the other the author examines national views of their histories from the common origin of both nations in the American Revolution through the two world wars She also examines the role of nature and images of place and home in Canadian and American literary writing noting the disparate historical development of the two national literatures Using specific works by recognized authors of their time Morrison considers the role of religion and the church violence and the law and humor and satire in the literature of both countries The book also explores the role of women race and class in the literature of both countries It concludes with a discussion of the tenacity of national myths and draws some tentative conclusions Now published in paperback in the United States Morrison's broad based approach to a largely unexplored subject will invite future study as well as improve understanding between Canada and the United States Canadians and Americans will be of interest to cultural historians American studies specialists political scientists and sociologists Telling Stories, 2021-11-15 The present volume is a highly comprehensive assessment of the postcolonial short story since the thirty six contributions cover most geographical areas concerned Another important feature is that it deals not only with exclusive practitioners of the genre Mansfield Munro but also with well known novelists Achebe Armah Atwood Carey Rushdie so that stimulating comparisons are suggested between shorter and longer works by the same authors In addition the volume is of interest for the study of aspects of orality dialect dance rhythms circularity and trickster figure for instance and of the more or less conflictual relationships between the individual character or implied author and the community Furthermore the marginalized status of women emerges as another major theme both as regards the past for white women settlers or the present for urbanized characters primarily in

Africa and India The reader will also have the rare pleasure of discovering Janice Kulik Keefer's Fox her version of what she calls in her commentary displaced autobiography or creative non fiction Lastly an extensive bibliography on the postcolonial short story opens up further possibilities for research Essays on Canadian Writing, 1991 The Cambridge

Companion to Canadian Literature Eva-Marie Kröller, 2017-05-27 This fully revised second edition of The Cambridge Companion to Canadian Literature offers a comprehensive introduction to major writers genres and topics For this edition several chapters have been completely rewritten to reflect major developments in Canadian literature since 2004 Surveys of fiction drama and poetry are complemented by chapters on Aboriginal writing autobiography literary criticism writing by women and the emergence of urban writing Areas of research that have expanded since the first edition include environmental concerns and questions of sexuality which are freshly explored across several different chapters A substantial chapter on francophone writing is included Authors such as Margaret Atwood noted for her experiments in multiple literary genres are given full consideration as is the work of authors who have achieved major recognition such as Alice Munro recipient of the Nobel Prize for literature Icelandic Voice in Canadian Letters Daisy L. Neijmann, 1997 This fascinating study explores a remarkable ethnic Canadian literature in close textual and contextual terms for the first time It lays a groundwork for future comparative research in the field of ethnic Canadian studies and challenges assumptions about cultural identity and human experience of the new Windows and Words Susan-Ann Cooper, Aïda Hudson, 2003 Windows and Words is a collection of seventeen essays that confirms and celebrates the artistry of Canadian Children's Literature There are essays that survey a wealth of English language fiction from the internationally acclaimed work of Lucy Maud Montgomery the aboriginal adolescent novel to the increasingly multi cultural character of children's books Others examine book illustration visual literacy and the creative partnership seen in the picture book and its art design With contributions by two Governor General's Award winning authors Janet Lunn and Tim Wynne Jones and a final commentary by Elizabeth Waterson the heart of this collection offers a unique perspective on the artistry of writing for children and claims a rightful place for Canadian children's literature as literature Unhomely States Cynthia Sugars, 2004-02-11 Unhomely States is the first collection of foundational essays of Canadian postcolonial theory The essays span the period from 1965 to the present day and approach broad issues of Canadian culture and society They represent the impassioned conflicts dissonances and intersections among postcolonial theorists in English Canada Theories of Canadian postcolonialism are various and often contending The questions proliferate Is Canada postcolonial Who in Canada is postcolonial Are some Canadians more postcolonial than others Together the essays in this collection demonstrate both the historical development of this vigorous debate and its most prominent current perspectives The anthology comprises work originally written in English selected and arranged in order to demonstrate the dynamic nature of these discussions Included here are essays by many well known writers and theorists such as George Grant Northrop Frye Margaret Atwood Dennis Lee Robert Kroetsch Linda Hutcheon

Diana Brydon Thomas King Terry Goldie Arun Mukherjee Smaro Kamboureli Stephen Slemon and Roy Miki The collection covers such topics as anti colonial nationalism settler invader theory First Nations contexts postcolonial pedagogy and critiques of Canadian postcolonialism A general introduction surveying the current field of postcolonial discourse in English Canada is also included

Recognition and Revelation Margaret Laurence, 2020-09-23 Margaret Laurence best known for her germinal novels set in the Canadian prairies is one of the nation's most respected authors She was also an accomplished essayist yet today her nonfiction writing is largely unavailable and therefore little known In Recognition and Revelation Nora Foster Stovel brings together Laurence's short nonfiction works including many that have not previously been collected and some that have never before been published These works including over fifty essays and addresses that span Laurence's writing career from the 1960s to the 1980s reveal her passionate concern for Canadian literature and for the land and peoples of Canada Based on extensive archival research Stovel's introduction contextualizes Laurence's nonfiction writings in her life as a creative artist and political activist and as a woman writing in the twentieth century The texts range from essays on Laurence's own writings and on other works of Canadian literature to autobiographical essays several focusing on environmental concerns to sociopolitical essays and writing advocating for peace and nuclear disarmament By revealing Laurence as a socially and politically committed artist this collection of lively and provocative essays illuminates the undercurrents of her creative writing and places her fiction often informed by her nonfiction writing in a new light
