Paris living among a group of writers and artists from around the world In the 1930s Hemingway became as famous for his personality as for his writing and he spent more of his time hunting and fishing competitively But when war broke out in his beloved Spain he went to serve as a correspondent on the loyalist side In 1940 his novel For Whom the Bell Tolls based on his wartime experiences was published to critical acclaim and financial success World War II found Hemingway working as a correspondent once again and prone to fighting and drinking Despite this decline he wrote The Old Man and the Sea which celebrated the courage of an aged Cuban fisherman and went on to win the Nobel Prize for literature in 1954 Keith Ferrell conveys the scope of Hemingway's achievement as a writer and gives a vivid portrait of one of America's finest authors
