'Punto de Vista' and the Argentine Intellectual Left Sofía Mercader, 2021-09-20 This book is the first comprehensive account of the Argentine magazine Punto de Vista 1978-2008 a cultural review that gathered together prominent Argentine intellectuals throughout the last quarter of the twentieth century Directed by cultural historian and public intellectual Beatriz Sarlo the story of the magazine serves as a lens to study the evolution of Argentine intellectuals from the leftist mobilization of the 1960s through periods of military dictatorship and then the shifting politics of democratization in the 1980s and 1990s The book argues that the way in which the Argentine intellectual left negotiated the political and cultural transformations of the late twentieth century can be understood as the history of two political defeats that of the revolutionary utopias of the 1960s and 1970s and that of the social democrat project in the 1980s By adopting an interdisciplinary approach this book encompasses a wide range of debates taking place in Argentina from the years prior to the dictatorship to the postdictatorship period

Argentine Cinema Jens Andermann, 2011-11-30 Argentine filmmaking from the mid 1990s to the present has enjoyed worldwide success New Argentine Cinema explores this cinema in order to discover the elements that have made for this success in relation to the country's profound political social and cultural crisis during the same period Jens Andermann shows how the most recent wave of films differs markedly from the Argentine cinema of the preceding decade following the end of the dictatorship in 1983 Studying films by Lisandro Alonso Albertina Carri Lucrecia Martel Raul Perrone Martin Rejtman and Pablo Trapero among others he identifies a shift in aesthetic sensibilities between these directors and those of the previous generation as well as a profound change in the way films are being made and their relation to the audiovisual field at large In combining close comparative analyses with a review of the changing models of production editing actorship and location Andermann uncovers the ways in which Argentine films have managed to construct a complex multilayered account of their own present as shot through or perforated by the still unresolved legacies of the past
