The National Union Catalog ,1958    Leonard Bernstein and His Young People's Concerts Alicia Kopfstein-Penk,2015-01-22 Leonard Bernstein touched millions of lives as composer conductor teacher and activist He frequently visited homes around the world through the medium of television particularly through his fifty three award winning Young People s Concerts 1958 1972 which at their height were seen by nearly ten million in over forty countries Originally designed for young viewers but equally attractive to eager adults Bernstein s brilliance as a teacher shined brightly in his televised presentations And yet despite the light touch of the maestro the innocence of his audience and the joyousness of each show s topic the turbulence of the times would peek through In this first in depth look at the series Alicia Kopfstein Penk s Leonard Bernstein and His Young People s Concerts illustrates how the cultural social political and musical upheavals of the long sixties impacted Bernstein s life and his Young People s Concerts Responding to trends in corporate sponsorship censorship and arts programming from the Golden Age of Television into the 1970s the Young People s Concerts would show the impact of and reflect the social and cultural politics of the Cold War Vietnam the Civil Rights and Women s Movements and the Counterculture Bernstein cheerfully bridged classical and popular tastes juxtaposing the Beatles with Mozart even as he offered personal televised pleas for peace and unity At the same time the concerts reflect Bernstein s troubled relationship as a professional musician with the dominance of atonality and his quest to nurture American music

Anyone who enjoys the oeuvre of Leonard Bernstein has watched his Young People's Concerts or is passionate about the history of the long sixties will find in Leonard Bernstein and His Young People's Concerts a story of all three captured in this monumental study    Musical Times and Singing Class Circular ,1897    The Musical Times ,1906    The International Cyclopedic of Music and Musicians Oscar Thompson,1975    Jacobs' Band Monthly ,1929    New York Magazine ,1994-06-06 New York magazine was born in 1968 after a run as an insert of the New York Herald Tribune and quickly made a place for itself as the trusted resource for readers across the country With award winning writing and photography covering everything from politics and food to theater and fashion the magazine's consistent mission has been to reflect back to its audience the energy and excitement of the city itself while celebrating New York as both a place and an idea    Melody ,1929
