He & She Cris Evatt,1992 Body Work Sylvia K. Blood,2004-03 Reassessing Experimental Psychology from a critical perspective Sylvia Blood demonstrates how its research into Body Image can be misused and prone to misuse Couples Therapy Linda Berg Cross,2013-12-16 Harness the power of an integrative approach to couples counseling Why do marriages fail The behaviorist or cognitive therapist explains that unhappy couples have self defeating ways of thinking about their spouses and themselves The sociologically oriented counselor points to the impact of social trends and dramatic changes in child rearing and social expectations A therapist oriented toward psychodynamics or systems theory sees the destructive patterns of childhood replayed in the marriage with spouses taking on rigid roles The pastoral or humanist counselor believes that partners who cannot experience self fulfillment through commitment and trust will feel less love and grow more and more disconnected Couples Therapy Second Edition brings together all these points of view to make a unified whole This integrative approach proposes a new model of successful marriage based on four cornerstones resiliency social support adaptability and self fulfillment Weaving together theory and research Couples Therapy Second Edition explores how common issues can lead to trouble in relationships It suggests specific interventions so therapists can teach clients to deal with such problem areas as anger management domestic violence depression anxiety parenting conflicts in laws work pressures and sexual dissatisfaction Couples Therapy Second Edition offers a sound theoretical framework as well as practical ideas Through clinical vignettes and up to date research it makes the common conflicts and developmental stages of marriage so understandable that it can be profitably read by clients as well as counselors Its invaluable resources for the couples therapist include end of chapter professional development questions therapeutic exercises answers to frequently asked professional and ethical questions intervention suggestions for the therapist self assessment questionnaires book and video recommendations on each chapter topic Written in clear readable prose Couples Therapy Second Edition offers practical help for the experienced clinician as well as theoretical overviews for the counselor in training Tight Lines Joseph Furia,2007-01-01 Featuring original artwork this anthology on the experience of fishing presents a selection of 50 stories recollections essays and poems featured in the Yale Anglers Journal during its first remarkable decade Power of Diversity Barbara Prashnig,2004-01-01 The Power of Diversity is written to help people to discover their preferred way of learning and in turn to help them and their children succeed at school Role of Sex and Gender in Aging and Longevity Calogero Caruso,2025-08-06 Role of Sex and Gender in Aging and Longevity aims to shed light on the complex interplay between sex and gender differences in the aging process and longevity of individuals While biological sex differences have long been recognized as influencing various aspects of aging this book includes how gender also plays a significant role in shaping these processes accelerating aging or favoring longevity By acknowledging the influence of both biological and socially constructed factors this book offers a comprehensive understanding of why individuals may experience different aging trajectories and have divergent longevity outcomes This book explores the intricate ways in which gender norms roles and expectations shape individual experiences of aging and delves into the social determinants of health that can interact with biological factors to influence the aging process and longevity outcomes By examining these interactions this book aims to provide a nuanced understanding of the multifaceted nature of aging and longevity and how sex and gender contribute to these complex phenomena laying the groundwork for future aging research and providing significant implications for disease prevention screening diagnosis and treatment of age related conditions Explores the distinct significance of sex and gender and their interrelation with aging and longevity Offers an in depth overview of the sex and gender specific biological and medical aspects of human aging and longevity Provides the tools required to understand the challenges posed by aging and longevity in individuals and how to approach solving them
