Street Life under a Roof Emily Margaretten, 2015-09-15 Point Place stands near the city center of Durban South Africa. Condemned and off the grid, the five-story apartment building is nonetheless home to a hundred plus teenagers and young adults marginalized by poverty and chronic unemployment. In Street Life under a Roof, Emily Margaretten draws on ten years of up-close fieldwork to explore the distinct cultural universe of the Point Place community. Margaretten's sensitive investigations reveal how young men and women draw on customary notions of respect and support to forge an ethos of connection and care that allows them to live far richer lives than ordinarily assumed. Her discussion of gender dynamics highlights terms like nakana to care about or take notice of another that young women and men use to construct outside and inside boyfriends and girlfriends and to communicate notions of trust. Margaretten exposes the structures of inequality at a local, regional, and global level that contribute to socioeconomic and political dislocation. But she also challenges the idea that Point Place's marginalized residents need rehabilitation. As she argues, these young men and women want love, secure homes, and the means to provide for their dependents in short, the same hopes and aspirations mirrored across South African society.

In the Shadow of the Cross Charles L. Bailey Jr., 2007-01-15 Charles L. Bailey Jr. and his book In the Shadow of the Cross are in the 2015 Sundance Film Festival's movie Call Me Lucky about Barry Crimmins by Bobcat Goldthwait. Here is a link to the Festival: <http://www.callmeluckymovie.com>. In a matter of seconds, author Charles L. Bailey Jr.'s childhood innocence was destroyed. At the tender age of ten, Bailey became a victim of continuous sexual abuse by his family's Roman Catholic priest. In In the Shadow of the Cross: The True Account of My Childhood Sexual and Ritual Abuse at the Hands of a Roman Catholic Priest, details Bailey's personal journey of recovery. With candid and shocking details, Bailey reveals how his ill treatment forever destroyed his innocence and robbed him of identity and faith. Bailey also explains how family and friends were impacted by the tragedy, how his development from child to adult was full of pitfalls, and how he struggled with issues of intimacy. But there is also hope in Bailey's story. Through his work with support groups such as SNAP (Survivors Network of those Abused by Priests), individual counseling, and his renewed faith in God, Bailey has confronted his past and has become an advocate for those impacted by clergy sexual abuse. In the Shadow of the Cross shares his compelling true story and serves as a stark reminder of the haunting legacy of abuse in the church. Charles is an award-winning author, winning Honorable Mention in the recently announced 2011 London Book Festival. Eye Statements From God. San Shaw Dawood, 2006-07-28. Clinical psychologist Sandra Shaw Dawood, Ph.D., shares her heartfelt and playful communication with God through the symbols He has provided her. Through wordplay, poetry, and autobiographical excerpts, she exposes her struggle to turn negative thoughts and events into positive, healthy thoughts by her interpretation of God's symbols that are just for her. Dr. Dawood delves into everyday events and creates meaningful interpretations of what she sees and experiences as being symbols from God to assist her in the daily rigors of life. These are her Eye Statements from God. She has developed her own symbols that bring her particular joy in her relationship with God. She recognized many patterns throughout her life in
