

Healing Hearts

GRIEF PROGRAM FOR
8 TO 12 YEAR OLD CHILDREN

Healing Hearts is designed to help children begin to recognize and understand the many feelings associated with the death of someone loved. During this program, children also get a chance to interact with others who have experienced a death.

Through play, stories, games, songs, talking about feelings, art and conversations with a bunny puppet named Hamilton, they find a comfortable place to express their thoughts and feelings.

This program is available to all children in our community
at no charge.
Registration is required.

Healing Children's Grief:

Healing Children's Grief Grace Hyslop Christ, 2000 The author relates the powerfully moving stories of eighty eight families and their 157 children ages 3 to 17 who participated in a parent guidance intervention through the terminal illness and death of one of the parents from cancer Cover Healing Your Grieving Heart for Kids Alan D. Wolfelt, 2001-04-01 With sensitivity and insight this series offers suggestions for healing activities that can help survivors learn to express their grief and mourn naturally Acknowledging that death is a painful ongoing part of life they explain how people need to slow down turn inward embrace their feelings of loss and seek and accept support when a loved one dies Each book geared for mourning adults teens or children provides ideas and action oriented tips that teach the basic principles of grief and healing These ideas and activities are aimed at reducing the confusion anxiety and huge personal void so that the living can begin their lives again Included in the books for teens and kids are age appropriate activities that teach younger people that their thoughts are not only normal but necessary Healing Children's Grief Grace Hyslop Christ, 2000-01-27 In this unique book Grace Christ relates the powerfully moving stories of eighty eight families and their 157 children ages 3 to 17 who participated in a parent guidance intervention through the terminal illness and death of one of the parents from cancer Using extensive case examples throughout Healing Children's Grief Surviving a Parent's Death from Cancer provides a detailed examination of how children and adolescents cope with this loss Covering a critical 20 month period from 6 months before to 14 months after the death of a parent Christ reports that a majority of the children successfully adapted to the loss during the subsequent months after the death The book is divided into two major sections The first summarizes the theoretical background and methodology The second presents the findings of the five developmentally derived age groups 3 5 6 8 9 11 12 14 and 15 17 Using qualitative analytic methods these findings clarify important differences in children's grief and mourning processes in their understanding of events in their interactions with families and in their varying needs for help and support The author describes how parents participated in healing their children's grief by preparing informing and guiding children through the experience understanding their developmental needs supporting and resonating with their unique expressions of grief helping them construct a positive legacy and reconstituting relationships without the day to day presence of the parent who died Healing Children's Grief Surviving a Parent's Death from Cancer provides practical guidance and direction for professionals and physicians nurses social workers therapists guidance counselors and teachers

Healing The Bereaved Child Alan Wolfelt, 2013-12-19 First published in 1996 One spring morning a gardener noticed an unfamiliar seedling poking through the ground near the rocky untidy edge of his garden So begins the parable that sets the tone for this inspiring heartfelt new book for caregivers to bereaved children By comparing grief counseling to gardening Dr Wolfelt frees caregivers of the traditional medical model of bereavement care which implies that grief is an illness that must be cured He suggests that caregivers instead embrace a more holistic view of the normal natural and necessary process that is grief He then explores the ways in which bereaved children can not only heal but grow through grief Healing the Bereaved Child also contains chapter after chapter of practical caregiving guidelines How a grieving child thinks feels and mourns What makes each child's grief unique How the bereaved child heals the six needs of mourning Foundations of counseling bereaved children Counseling techniques play art writing nature and many others more than 15 pages A family systems approach to counseling Support groups for bereaved kids including a 10 session model Helping grieving children at school including a crisis response team model Helping the grieving adolescent Self care for the child's bereavement caregiver A must read for child counselors hospice caregivers funeral directors school counselors and teachers clergy parents anyone who wants to offer support and companionship to children affected by the death of someone loved Healing a Child's Grieving Heart Alan D. Wolfelt, 2001-04-01 A compassionate resource for friends parents relatives teachers volunteers and caregivers this series offers suggestions to help the grieving cope with the loss of a loved one Often people do not know what to say or what not to say to someone they know who is mourning this series teaches that the most important thing a person can do is listen have compassion be there for support and do something helpful This volume addresses what to expect from grieving young people and how to provide safe outlets for children to express emotion Included in each book are tested sensitive ideas for carpe diem actions that people can take right this minute while still remaining supportive and honoring the mourner's loss Children Also Grieve Linda Goldman, 2006 Henry the dog explains how he felt after his grandfather died and how the children who make up his family felt and worked through their feelings of grief includes a memory book for young readers who have lost someone When Your Child Loses a Loved One Theresa Huntley, 2001-07-01 Talking with a grieving child can put a parent at a loss for words In this brief guide Huntley guides parents through children's grief including how children understand death how to talk with children about death how children grieve what steps help children work through their grief and how parents can recognize the ebb and flow of grief over the course of children's lives A Child's View of Grief Alan D Wolfelt, 2004-04-01 This concise resource for parents of grieving kids explores several key principles for helping children cope with grief and offers ways to create an emotional environment filled with love and acceptance It answers common questions such as What should I say to children when someone they love dies and Should young children attend funerals This guide also identifies and explains typical behaviors thoughts and feelings of grieving kids and offers adults tips for responding to them Parenting a Grieving Child (Revised) Mary DeTurris Poust, 2015-08-01 Whether it's a fish a friend or a family member nearly every child will experience a loss in their early years and the experience and feelings of a sad event can be confusing and scary And when grief intrudes children look to their parents and the adults in their lives to fix this pain take away what they don't understand and show them how to handle their emotions Parenting a Grieving Child provides practical and approachable resources for Catholic parents and other adult helpers who work with children to use the power and traditions of the Catholic faith to accompany children as they work through their grief in a healthy way As author Mary DeTurris Poust points out too often children are left out of the grieving process and their specific grief issues are not addressed or are addressed in harmful ways Children s grief is real and powerful and it needs to be acknowledged and validated by the adults who are accompanying them through the grieving process Drawing from the traditions and practices of the Catholic faith Parenting a Grieving Child provides the steps parents can take to help their child through one of life s most difficult experiences Healing Activities for Children in Grief Gay

McWhorter,2003 Activities suitable for support groups with grieving children preteens and teens Cover Healing the Grieving Child's Heart Alan D.
