Afro-Christianity at the Grassroots G.C. Oosthuizen,M.C. Kitshoff,S.W.D. Dube,2023-12-28 The spontaneous and rapid growth of indigenous African Christianity especially in South Africa has undermined the appropriateness of the term mainline for the traditional denominational churches in the area Some of these churches lost more than twenty five percent of their membership in the period 1980 1990 while membership of the indigenous churches increased by a similar percentage in the same period The contributions to this volume are based on grassroots research and each one treats some significant aspect within the life and work of this vast self motivating movement a movement largely ignored for over a century by western oriented Christianity The work of these researchers clearly indicates how it is that African Indigenous Churches with their holistic approach to religion a feature of traditional African religion serve as such a dynamic vehicle in effectively addressing the needs of their flocks A further focus of the essays is on issues faced by these churches within their own church context

a substantial contextualising introduction which includes discussion of the church's history and its position in contemporary South Africa and weaves in discussion of the topics of literacy and modernity. The book then moves to the three documents presented in their language of composition Zulu and in an English translation. The three books each from Shembe's Nazareth Baptist Church provide the reader with a fascinating insight into the growth and organisation of one of southern Africa's most influential African Churches and into the use and interpretation of the Bible by the church's founder Isaiah Shembe and by church members. Central to the writings is the complex presence of Shembe present both through his own words in the first book and in the second book through the memory of Meshack Hadebe a member of the church in the 1920s and 1930s. The extracts in the third book provide a glimpse of the church's hymnal and the unique religious poetry of the hymns authored by Shembe.

A History of the Last Church of God and His Christ Makuni Gondwe, 2018-01-05

Some scholars classify the Last Church of God and His Christ under the ecclesiastical cultural bloc known as African Indigenous Churches (AICs). David Barrett has divided the world's Christians into seven major ecclesiastical blocs. However, there are many large churches and denominations which do not define themselves under any of these three terms and often reject all three. As far back as 1549 in Japan and 1741 in the USA, new types of Christianity have emerged that do not fit readily into any of these preceding six major blocs. These consist of denominations, churches and movements that have been initiated, founded and spread by black, Non-White or non-European peoples without European assistance, mainly in the Global South but also among Black and Non-White minorities in the Western World. The African Indigenous Churches fall under this category. The aim of the book is to examine the history of the Last Church of God and His Christ International in Malawi from its beginning in 1916 through the years and to portray a picture of its current existence in its various branches. What developments and changes have taken place over the years? What has been the relationship of the church to African culture? How has the church grown or expanded? Has the church been able to maintain its unity? And what has been the relationship of the church with other churches?

Faith-Based Health Justice Ville Päivänsalo, Ayesha Ahmad, George Zachariah, Mari Stenlund, 2021-02-16

In Faith Based Health Justice, a stellar assembly of scholars mines critical insights into the promotion of health justice across Christian and Islamic faith traditions and beyond. Contributors to the volume consider what health justice might mean today if developed in accordance with faith traditions whose commandment to care for the poor, ill and marginalized lies at the core of their theology. And what kind of transformation of both faith traditions and public policies would be needed in the face of the health justice challenges in our turbulent time. Contributors to the volume come from a wide range of backgrounds and the result will be of interest to scholars and students in social ethics, development studies, global theology, interreligious studies and global health as well as experts, practitioners and policy makers in health and development work.

The Transformation of African Christianity Sunday Jide Komolafe, 2013-02-14

The explosion of the church in Nigeria is phenomenal with a forward momentum that is as remarkable as the missionary optimism of the first century Church. The history reveals a tightly woven narrative of the process of beginnings growth and change African Charismatics Johnson Asamoah-Gyadu,2004-10-01 This volume examines Pentecostal charismatic renewal in an African context Ghanaian Pentecostalism in its modern charismatic form has become the most visible expression of renewal within indigenous Christianity The book first articulates the contribution of the older African initiated churches AICs to local Christianity arguing that in spite of a present decline the AICs have left an enduring theological imprint on indigenous Christian expression Furthermore it accounts for the rise of the new independent churches the charismatic ministries These have been proliferating across the West Africa sub region since the late 1970s In addition to this the book explores how the emphases of the new Ghanaian charismatics internationalism transformation prosperity healing and deliverance provide useful insights into the nature of modern African Pentecostal spirituality The Palgrave Handbook of Christianity in Africa from Apostolic Times to the Present Andrew Eugene Barnes,Toyin Falola,2024-03-07 This comprehensive Handbook provides chapter length surveys of the history of Christian missions and Christian churches on the African continent since the time of Christ Africa is rapidly becoming the most Christianized region of the world While common narratives about Christianity tend to present Christianity as a set of ideas and beliefs imposed on Africa from the outside such narratives hold little meaning for African Christians or for those seeking to understand Christianity in Africa as an indigenous faith The aim of the Handbook is to propose a set of scholarly starting points for a new set of narratives The chapters collected here communicate an idea of Christianity as it has been embraced among African peoples at particular historical moments It therefore grants voice to the various strands of African Christianity on their own terms and offers scholarly study of what these voices teach us about how the world s most adhered to religion is practiced and understood on the continent of Africa
