the History of Architecture begins its journey with the great temples of the Egyptians and the shrines of Classical Greece and Rome and then provides a complete survey of architecture through the present day. Each chapter of this dynamic and approachable volume focuses on a movement in architectural history including Byzantine Baroque Mannerism Historicism Functionalism and Deconstruction. Unique to this work is Harbison's wide ranging approach which draws on references and examples outside of architecture from literature art sculpture and history to further illustrate and contextualize the themes and ideas of each period. For example the travel writing of Pausanias illustrates the monuments of ancient Greece a poem in praise of marble decoration reveals how the builders of the cathedral of Hagia Sophia viewed their creation and a French rococo painting speaks to the meaning behind the design of the English landscape garden. Original yet authoritative Travels in the History of Architecture will be an indispensable guide for everyone curious to know more about the world's most famous structures as well as for students of art and architectural history seeking a definitive introduction. St. Paul's

Norwich Cathedral Close Roberta Gilchrist, 2005 Winner of a CHOICE Outstanding Academic Title Award What explains the layout of the cathedral and its close? What ideas and beliefs shaped this familiar landscape? Through this pioneering study of the development of the close of Norwich cathedral one of the most important buildings in medieval England from its foundation in 1096 up to c 1700 the author looks at changes in cathedral landscape both sacred and social. Using evidence from history archaeology and other disciplines Professor Gilchrist reconstructs both the landscape and buildings of the close and the transformations in their use and meaning over time. Much emphasis is placed on the layout and the ways in which buildings and spaces were used and perceived by different groups. Patterns observed at Norwich are then placed in the context of other cathedral priories allowing a broader picture to emerge of the development of the English cathedral landscape over six centuries ROBERTA GILCHRIST is Professor of Archaeology at the University of Reading and President of the Society for Medieval Archaeology From 1993 to 2005 she was Archaeologist to Norwich Cathedral She has published extensively on medieval monasticism and social archaeology
