The History of English Literature; with an Outline of the Origin and Growth of the English Language: Illustrated by Extracts William Spalding, 1853 The Student's Manual of English Literature. A History of English Literature. ... A New Edition Of "Outlines of English Literature" , Enlarged and Rewritten. Edited, with Notes and Illustrations, by W. Smith Thomas Budd SHAW, 1867 The Literary History of England Donald F. Bond, G. Sherburn, 2003-09-02 The paperback edition in four volumes of this standard work will make it readily available to students The scope of the work makes it valuable as a work of reference connecting one period with another and placing each author clearly in the setting of his time Reviewing the first edition The Times Literary Supplement commented in inclusiveness and in judgment it has few rivals of its kind This third volume covers the Restoration and the Eighteenth Century 1660 1789 and is co authored by George Sherburn and Donald F Bond both at the University of Chicago Character & Consciousness in Eighteenth-century Comic Fiction Elizabeth Kraft, 1992 The eighteenth century novel developed amid an emerging emphasis on individualism that clashed with long cherished beliefs in hierarchy and stability Though the comic novelists unlike Defoe and Richardson avoided total involvement in the mind of any one character they were nonetheless fundamentally concerned with the nature of consciousness In Character and Consciousness in Eighteenth Century Comic Fiction Elizabeth Kraft examines the kind of consciousness central to comic novels of the period It is she asserts individual identity conceived in social terms a character's search for his or her place in a precarious secular order Understanding this concept of character is vitally important to a full appreciation of eighteenth century comic fiction To respond validly to these fictional characters Kraft claims the twentieth century reader must recapture or recreate the eighteenth century self In readings of five novels Henry Fielding's Tom Jones Charlotte Lennox's Female Quixote Laurence Sterne's Tristram Shandy Tobias Smollett's Peregrine Pickle and Fanny Burney's Cecilia Kraft explores the relationships among consciousness character and comic narrative Fielding Lennox and Sterne she argues question the validity of narratives of consciousness Each seeks to define the limitations as well as the virtues of the form in representing the individual and communal lives Smollett and Burney on the other hand address a readership that expects the novel to offer meaningful renderings of person experience These novelists accept the validity of the narrative of consciousness but place this narrative within the context of the larger community As a thorough analysis of relations between narrative and the construction of character and consciousness Kraft's study is an important addition to our understanding of the theoretical formulations of eighteenth century fiction Encyclopedia of the Essay Tracy Chevalier, 2012-10-12 This groundbreaking new source of international scope defines the essay as nonfictional prose texts of between one and 50 pages in length The more than 500 entries by 275 contributors include entries on nationalities various categories of essays such as generic such as sermons aphorisms individual major works notable writers and periodicals that created a market for essays and particularly famous or significant essays The preface details the historical development of the essay and the alphabetically arranged entries usually include biographical sketch nationality era selected writings list additional readings and anthologies History of English Literature Hippolyte Taine, 1874

Gospels and Grit Rob Breton, 2005-01-01 Examines the literary representations of work and labour in the Victorian works of Carlyle and the 20th century writings of Conrad and Orwell The History of English Literature; with an outline of the origin and growth of the English Language: illustrates by the Extracts Will Spalding, 1855 Literary History Anders Pettersson, Gunilla Lindberg-Wada, Margareta Petersson, Stefan Helgesson, 2006 Literary History Towards a Global Perspective is a research project funded by the Swedish Research Council Vetenskapsr det Initiated in 1996 and launched in 1999 it aims at finding suitable methods and approaches for studying and analysing literature globally emphasizing the comparative and intercultural aspect Even though we nowadays have fast and easy access to any kind of information on literature and literary history we encounter more than ever the difficulty of finding a credible overall perspective on world literary history Until today literary cultures and traditions have usually been studied separately each field using its own principles and methods Even the conceptual basis itself varies from section to section and the genre concepts employed are not mutually compatible As a consequence it is very difficult if not impossible for the interested layperson as well as for the professional student to gain a clear and fair perspective both on the literary traditions of other peoples and on one's own traditions The project can be considered as a contribution to gradually removing this problem and helping to gain a better understanding of literature and literary history by means of a concerted empirical research and deeper conceptual reflection The contributions to the four volumes are written in English by specialists from a large number of disciplines primarily from the fields of comparative literature Oriental studies and African studies in Sweden All of the literary texts discussed in the articles are in the original language Each one of the four volumes is devoted to a special research topic

A History of English Literature Robert Huntington Fletcher, 1919 Jonathan Swift another unique figure of very mixed traits is like Defoe in that he connects the reign of William III with that of his successors and that in accordance with the spirit of his age he wrote for the most part not for literary but for practical purposes in many other respects the two are widely different Swift is one of the best representatives in English literature of sheer intellectual power but his character his aims his environment and the circumstances of his life denied to him also literary achievement of the greatest permanent significance
