English Civil War Coins Hoards:

The English Civil War Peter Gaunt, 2014-05-09 Sir God hath taken away your eldest son by a cannon shot It brake his leg We were necessitated to have it cut off whereof he died In one of the most famous and moving letters of the Civil War Oliver Cromwell told his brother in law that on 2 July 1644 Parliament had won an emphatic victory over a Royalist army commanded by King Charles I's nephew Prince Rupert on rolling moorland west of York But that battle Marston Moor had also slain his own nephew the recipient's firstborn In this vividly narrated history of the deadly conflict that engulfed the nation during the 1640s Peter Gaunt shows that with the exception of World War I the death rate was higher than any other contest in which Britain has participated Numerous towns and villages were garrisoned attacked damaged or wrecked The landscape was profoundly altered Yet amidst all the blood and killing the fighting was also a catalyst for profound social change and innovation Charting major battles raids and engagements the author uses rich contemporary accounts to explore the life changing experience of war for those involved whether musketeers at Cheriton dragoons at Edgehill or Cromwell's disciplined Ironsides at Naseby 1645 Iron Age and Roman Coin Hoards in Britain Roger Bland, Adrian Chadwick, Colin Haselgrove, David Mattingly, 2020-06-30 More coin hoards have been recorded from Roman Britain than from any other province of the Empire This comprehensive and lavishly illustrated volume provides a survey of over 3260 hoards of Iron Age and Roman coins found in England and Wales with a detailed analysis and discussion Theories of hoarding and deposition and examined national and regional patterns in the landscape settings of coin hoards presented together with an analysis of those hoards whose findspots were surveyed and of those hoards found in archaeological excavations It also includes an unprecedented examination of the containers in which coin hoards were buried and the objects found with them The patterns of hoarding in Britain from the late 2nd century BC to the 5th century AD are discussed The volume also provides a survey of Britain in the 3rd century AD as a peak of over 700 hoards are known from the period from AD 253-296 This has been a particular focus of the project which has been a collaborative research venture between the University of Leicester and the British Museum funded by the AHRC The aim has been to understand the reasons behind the burial and non recovery of these finds A comprehensive online database <https://finds.org.uk/database> underpins the project which also undertook a comprehensive GIS analysis of all the hoards and field surveys of a sample of them Hoards from Wiltshire Richard Henry, 2021-07-15 The Finds Liaison Officer for Wiltshire documents some of the incredible hoards discovered in the county
