Footnotes to History Nigel Harris, 2015-08-01 This book brings a novel focus to social history It is a study of a group family an extended family closely structured though marriages that were either internal or with trusted associates Its members strove cooperatively for their own mutual benefit This kind of social entity evolved down the centuries reaching its zenith in the early nineteenth century The family portrayed the Pennells provides a supreme example of such a united body John Wilson Croker his two half nieces and his best friend all married into it The size of this group family gave ample scope for marriages between cousins Most men in it gained prestigious appointments through Croker s patronage but at the price of giving him their unswerving loyalty From diaries personal letters newspaper articles Chancery papers and Government documents the book brings the character of family members to life and shows how they interacted Their personalities are portrayed through a wealth of entertaining anecdotes recorded by their contemporaries Discussion focuses on the family in the nineteenth century but how it evolved is also described With their varied occupations and far flung travel the people whose stories are narrated give insight into fascinating but little frequented byways of British social and colonial history such as intelligence gathering in the seventeenth century and the Newfoundland cod trade in the eighteenth Their direct participation in events included riding from Dorset to London to warn James II personally of the Duke of Monmouth s landing and rescuing Marie Antoinette s daughter from Napoleon The book takes us on a meandering journey through British history brought to life by the experiences of one family over more than two centuries Adventurers of Purse and Person, Virginia, 1607-1624/5:

Families G-P John Frederick Dorman,2004 The foundation for this work is the Muster of Jan 1624 25 which had never before been printed in full Page xiii volume 1 Extraneus: Strange of Blisland John Richard Mayer,1993 The Letterbook of John Custis IV of Williamsburg, 1717-1742 John Custis,2005 This absorbing letterbook meticulously edited and thoroughly annotated provides remarkable insight into the life and concerns of 18th century colonial Virginians The letters are especially revealing about economic life the material culture of colonial Virginia and the treacherous legal and financial conditions in which even important planters operated The correspondence clearly shows how a wealthy colonial planter uses and could be misused by the British mercantile system The letters also provide a view of the personal side of the sober and overly frugal Custis his fashionable passion for gardening in which he was inferior to few if any in Virginia his strife filled nine year marriage to Frances Parke before her death from smallpox and his uneven relationships with his son and daughter Bulletin ,1967 William Horn of Nansemond , Germanna Road Dr. Peter G. Rainey,2010-06-30 This is a history of the land and the landowners along Germanna Road and connecting roads from the Rapidan River to Wilderness Run The chapters that follow provide the history of the lower end of Orange County especially the Alexandria Tract with particular attention to the land in and around Lake of the Woods My brother asked me Why should I care about the Alexandria Tract My simple answer was Because we are descendants of Alexander Spotswood He got me to thinking about what motivates anyone to write and especially to research and record one s findings for posterity When the English settler came to Virginia he brought his law and his library The concept of land boundaries and personal ownership were foreign until then as was the concept of written records The land records journals and family records of the five generations of Spotswoods their relatives and neighbors that lived on and near the Lake of the Woods area have been preserved but their story has not previously been written Similarly the modern pioneers that came in the late 1960s and later to form the community of Lake of the Woods should have their story preserved Of all the places within a few hours of Washington D C why pick the Wilderness to develop a large lake recreational community The answer to this question cannot be found in any published history of Orange County Why would families sell their home of generations including the family cemetery The simple answer of for the right price is not the only explanation Warwick County, Virginia, Colonial Court Records in
