VOLUME
SEVEN

Edited by
PETER BEAL & HELMUT GRIFFITHS

This series of volumes covers the history of the English manuscript tradition from the eleventh to the eighteenth century. The volumes are edited by leading experts in the field and contain a wealth of information on the history of the English manuscript tradition, including a detailed bibliography of the field. The series is essential reading for all those interested in the history of the English manuscript tradition.

The series is published by the British Library, which is the national library of the United Kingdom. The British Library is the largest library in the world, with over 170 million items in its collection. The British Library is a member of the International Association of Agricultural Librarians and Documentalists (IAALD) and the International Association of Music Libraries (IAML).
