Knight, Harry Elmer Barnes, Felix Flügel, 2022-12-15 Originally published in 1930 this book is a detailed but lucid piece of historical writing which answers many questions about ancient and medieval history that are most important for understanding contemporary economic problems The economic history of Europe in modern times is both the history of agriculture industry and commerce of a continent over 5 centuries and the history of a series of changes in economic organization which have been dominant in making the modern world what it is This book gives due weight to both of these aspects As well as being an account of sequences of events it is also an account of changing forms of economic activity alterations of the economic structure of society and emerging economic problems in the 20th Century into nothing but a means to the end of maximum profits for their employers The nature of the work we do and the conditions under which we do it profoundly shape our lives And yet both of these factors are peripheral to mainstream economics By sweeping labor under the rug mainstream economists hide the nature of capitalism making it appear to be a system based upon equal exchange rather than exploitation inside every workplace     The Gender and Science Reader Muriel Lederman, Ingrid Bartsch, 2001 The Gender and Science Reader brings together key articles in a comprehensive investigations of the nature and practice of science     Principles of Economics Edwin Robert Anderson Seligman, 1923

Allen, 2018-01-10 This book first published in 1929 analyses the changes to Birmingham and the Black Country in the nineteenth century The area underwent quite a transformation many of the older trades were decaying while at the same time a number of new manufactures were making a remarkable rapid advance As a result of this the industrial structure of the area in the early twentieth century was made up of very different constituents from those of which it was composed sixty years previously This is an invaluable study of a remarkable industrial transformation that was carried out in a very short space of time     The Economic History Review ,1944 Broad coverage of themes of economic and social change including the intellectual political and cultural implications of these changes     Guide to Reprints, 1986 Ann S.
