English Furniture, 1550-1760 Geoffrey Wills,1971 The Making of the English Middle Class Peter Earle,1989-01-01

This is the first major study of a neglected yet extremely significant subject the London middle classes in the period between 1660 and 1730 a period in which they created a society and economy that can be seen with hindsight to have ushered in the modern world Using a wealth of material from contemporary sources including wills business papers inventories marriage contracts divorce hearings and the writings of Daniel Defoe and Samuel Pepys Peter Earle presents a fully rounded picture of the middling sort of people getting to the hearts of their lives as men and women struggling for success in the biggest richest and most middle class city in contemporary Europe He examines in fascinating and convincing detail the business life of Londoners from apprenticeship through the problems and potential rewards of different occupational groups going on to look at middle class family social political and material life from relationships with spouses children servants and neighbors to food and clothes and furniture to sickness death and burial Stimulating scholarly and constantly illuminating this book is an important and impressive contribution to English social history
