English Misericords:

English Misericords Marshall Laird, 1986-01-01 The Misericords of Norwich Cathedral Martial Rose, 1994 Church Woodwork in the British Isles, 1100-1535 Robert A. Faleer, 2009-04-07

Church Woodwork in the British Isles 1100 1535 An Annotated Bibliography is a thoroughly researched bibliographic guide to monographic serial archival and graphical resources that deal with all aspects of late Romanesque Gothic and early Renaissance ecclesiastical woodwork in churches throughout the United Kingdom and the Republic of Ireland Dealing with both the decorative and structural elements of wooden church furnishings fittings this authoritative reference tool includes more than 900 annotated citations for works published from the mid 19th century to the present The extensive and informative annotations provide a synopsis of each cited resource Resources are categorized in separate chapters by their specific location in the church their decorative features their structural function or other pertinent criteria This annotated bibliography represents the most comprehensive reference tool for material that deals with church woodwork that has yet been published Medieval Obscenities Nicola F. McDonald, Nicola McDonald, 2014

Medieval Obscenities examines the complex and contentious role of the obscene what is offensive indecent or morally repugnant in medieval culture from late antiquity through to the end of the middle ages in western Europe Its approach is multidisciplinary its methodologies divergent and it seeks to formulate questions and stimulate debate The essays examine topics as diverse as Norse defecation taboos the Anglo Saxon sexual idiom sheela na gigs impotence in the church courts bare ecclesiastical bottoms rude sounds and dirty words as well as the modern reception and representation of the medieval obscene The volume demonstrates not only the vitality of medieval obscenity but its centrality to our understanding of medieval life Jacket The Language of Abuse Sara Margaret Butler, 2007

Drawing on a wide range of legal and literary sources this book offers a comprehensive investigation into the acceptability of violence in marriage at a time when social expectations of gender and marriage were in transition The Mark of the Beast Debra Hassig, 2013-10-18

The medieval bestiary was a contribution to didactic religious literature addressing concerns central to all walks of Christian and secular life These essays analyze the bestiary from both literary and art historical perspectives exploring issues including kinship romance sex death and the afterlife King's College Chapel, Aberdeen, 1500-2000 Jane Geddes, 2020-10-28

This new edition is a revised and expanded version of the book produced in 2000 to celebrate the quincentenary of King s College Chapel Aberdeen Since then exciting discoveries have taken place and old ideas have been reappraised The choir stalls and woodwork have provided a fresh seam of information about the meaning and use of the medieval chapel Daniel MacCannell has identified new iconography in the stalls Jane Geddes prompted by the installation of the new organ has investigated the original function and appearance of the great pulpitum or screen between the choir and nave and discovered the location of a magnificent lost organ loft Mary Pryor and John Morrison have examined the great baroque biblical paintings and come up with a totally new interpretation of their iconography and function a political warning to King Charles II Easter Smart the university chaplain describes the flexible and ecumenical use of the chapel today The revised edition appears in time to honour the quincentenary of the death of Bishop William Elphinstone the founder of Aberdeen University who died in 1514 This book aims to integrate his legacy to the chapel the liturgy music architecture and fittings Thanks to an unusually tolerant and conservative attitude towards religion at the university following the Reformation the chapel has survived in a more complete medieval state than any other church in Scotland The rich archive of university documents show how benign neglect and a fierce pride in their iconic building caused the university to maintain the structure and its furnishings even during the long centuries when it ceased to serve a religious function The Grove Encyclopedia of Medieval Art and Architecture Colum Hourihane, 2012 This volume offers unparalleled coverage of all aspects of art and architecture from medieval Western Europe from the 6th century to the early 16th century Drawing upon the expansive scholarship in the celebrated Grove Dictionary of Art and adding hundreds of new entries it offers students researchers and the general public a reliable up to date and convenient resource covering this field of major importance in the development of Western history and international art and architecture Women Medievalists and the Academy, Volume 2 Jane Chance, 2018-05-22 Long overlooked in standard reference works pioneering women medievalists finally receive their due in Women Medievalists and the Academy This comprehensive edited volume brings to life a diverse collection of inspiring figures through memoirs biographical essays and interviews Covering many different nationalities and academic disciplines including literature philology history archaeology art history theology or religious studies and philosophy each essay delves into one woman's life intellectual contributions and efforts to succeed in a male dominated field Together these extraordinary personal histories constitute a new standard reference that speaks to a growing interest in women's roles in the development of scholarship and the academy The collection begins in the eighteenth century with Elizabeth Elstob and continues to the present and includes among more than seventy profiles such important figures as Anna Jameson Lina Eckenstein Georgiana Goddard King Eileen Power Dorothy L Sayers Dorothy Whitelock Susan Mosher Stuard Marcia Colish and Caroline Walker Bynum among others Bulletin bibliographique de la Société internationale arthurienne International Arthurian Society, 1986 Wooden Images Juanita Ballew Wood, 1999 Using 163 photographs of images carved on the underside of medieval choir stalls in the churches and cathedrals of England in the thirteenth through sixteenth centuries this work provides a spirited examination of the social history of ordinary men and women during the late medieval period This examination is particularly useful in that the choir stalls have become less accessible to the public in recent years Misericords have received some scholarly attention but this work is the first to interpret the carvings as social commentary They are not examined as decorative embellishments or pieces of church furniture but rather read as intimate glimpses into the thoughts actions and beliefs of a segment of the English medieval population Whatever amused angered frightened or elated the common person is recorded here in these extraordinary records The Conway Library, the
