Dictionary Catalog of the Research Libraries of the New York Public Library, 1911-1971 New York Public Library. Research Libraries,1979 Publishers' Circular and Booksellers' Record of British and Foreign Literature ,1882 The Compleat Plattmaker Norman J. W. Thrower,2023-11-10 The Compleat Plattmaker is a rich collection of essays delving into the art and science of cartography in England during the seventeenth and eighteenth centuries Drawing upon the extensive resources of the William Andrews Clark Memorial Library at UCLA this volume offers insights into the intricate world of map chart and globe creation a field that blended artistry geography and scientific inquiry during a transformative period of exploration and intellectual development The essays examine the evolution of cartographic practices focusing on key figures like Edmond Halley a pioneer in thematic mapping and the Thames School of chartmakers whose work bridged the transition from manuscript to printed maps Topics include advancements in surveying and engraving techniques the role of colonial mapping in expanding geographic knowledge and the interplay between scientific innovation and artistic expression Compiled from the Clark Library s programs and seminars this volume is a testament to the interdisciplinary exploration of cartography and its enduring impact on cultural and scientific history This title is part of UC Press s Voices Revived program which commemorates University of California Press s mission to seek out and cultivate the brightest minds and give them voice reach and impact Drawing on a backlist dating to 1893 Voices Revived makes high quality peer reviewed scholarship accessible once again using print on demand technology This title was originally published in 1978 Official Gazette Philippines,1963 The Inland Printer ,1895 Images of the Outcast Sean Shesgreen,2002 Cries artistic representations of the various denizens of London s streets including prostitutes beggars and tinkers were produced between 1580 and 1900 This study analyses the representation behind the art of the Cries in a social cultural and historical context

The Publishers' Circular and Booksellers' Record of British and Foreign Literature ,1895 Peter Stent, London Printseller Alexander V. Globe,2011-11-01 From the 15th century on engravings influenced European culture almost as profoundly as books Like stained glass windows in the Middle Ages or television today popular prints were designed to reach even the lowest orders of society In the 17th century Peter Stent whose shop stood outside Newgate was England s most prolific seller of popular prints maps and copybooks to the working and rising middle classes His inventory of copper plates reflected the shifts of popular tastes during this period and commented directly on the turbulent events of the day In documenting Stent s output Alexander Globe studied the printsellers advertising catalogues as external controls for reconstructing inventories as well as indices to contemporary tastes From these and other contemporary sources Globe cites every engraving and book attributable to Stent breaking down the material into types portraits maps miscellaneous sheets and books including works on handwriting politics natural history anatomy costume and architecture References and additions are made to the catalogues of Donald Wing and A M Hind Globe takes the history of engraving beyond Hind by including prints from the Commonwealth Protectorate and early Restoration periods Eight appendices supplement the catalogue information They provide evidence for print identification discuss paper sizes and list Stent's artists suppliers and business associates All the collections in which Stent items may be found are named The volume concludes with a bibliography and indices of subject as well as post 17th century authors Globe's introduction to Stent's work is concerned with the social political and economic conditions leading to the emergence of a popular printseller who catered to a different clientele from that usually studied by art historians Stent's career illustrates the mid 17th century commercial revolution which saw the artisan's customers change from the wealthy leisure class to the worker who wanted mass produced cheap goods Drawing on material in a hundred libraries and museums around the world the catalogue describes over fifteen hundred engravings including 319 sheets and five books of portraits 42 maps 102 miscellaneous prints and sets with religious classical heraldic and satirical subjects and 86 books on handwriting politics military training natural history figure sketches costume architecture and ornament Richly illustrated with 319 plates Peter Stent will prove valuable not only to print dealers art historians museums and libraries but also to social cultural and political historians
