LAST WILL AND TESTAMENT

I, _____, presently residing at _____, being of sound mind and memory, do hereby revoke any and all former Wills and codicils made by me, and do make, ordain, publish and declare this my LAST WILL AND TESTAMENT.

PREAMBLE

I bear witness that there is no deity but Allah, the One, the Merciful, Almighty God--Creator of the heavens and the Earth and all therein--God of Abraham, Moses, Jesus, Muhammad, and all the Prophets, mercy and peace be upon them. He is One God and He has no partner. And I bear witness that the Prophet Muhammad is His servant and His messenger and last of all the Prophets, mercy and peace be upon them all. I bear witness that Allah is the Truth, that His promise is Truth, that the Meeting with Him is Truth. I bear witness that Paradise is Truth and that Hell is Truth. And I bear witness that the coming of the Day of Judgement is Truth, there is no doubt about it, and that Allah, who is exalted above all deficiency and imperfection, will surely resurrect the dead of all generations of mankind, first and last and those in between. This is my counsel to my relatives and friends, my Muslim brothers and sisters, and all those who remain after me, that they strive to be true Muslims, that they submit to their Creator, may He be exalted, and worship Him as He alone is to be

Daughters of London Kathryn Kelsey Staples,2011-03-18 In historical records women appear as widows sometimes as wives or singlewomen but one thing they had in common was they all were daughters Through an examination of the Husting wills Kate Staples focuses on daughters in the late medieval capital and their chances to own rent and manage property

These daughters were provided opportunities to be active economic agents in a world often described as hostile to women. Daughters of London also considers parents influence through their bequests to daughters and the visualization of daughters household spaces that these bequests allow. By focusing on daughterhood and particularly urban daughters experiences of inheritance we can refocus the lens through which we see and understand women s lives in the medieval past. Law of Wills, Executors and Administrators James Schouler, 1915 Death and Burial in Medieval England 1066-1550 Christopher Daniell, 2005-06-20 Bringing together knowledge accumulated from historical archaeological and literary sources Daniell paints a vivid picture of the entire phenomenon of medieval death and burial. A big contribution to medieval and early modern studies.
