Writers consider nineteenth and twentieth-century American and European images of African Americans, art installations, photography, literature, sculpture, exhibitions, performances, painting, film, and material culture. This is essential reading for historians, cultural critics, art historians, educationalists, and museologists in America as in Europe and an important contribution to the understanding of the African diaspora, race, American and British history, heritage, tourism, and transatlantic relations. Contributions include previously unpublished interview material with artists and practitioners and a comprehensive review of the commemorative exhibitions of 2007. Illustrations include images from Louisiana, Maryland, and Virginia, many previously unpublished in black and white, which challenge previous understandings of the aesthetics of slave representation. This book was published as a special issue of Slavery and Abolition. The English Cyclopædia, 1861
