Great War and Women's Consciousness Claire M. Tylee, 1989-12-15 The literary memory of the

Great War is dominated by the writings of Sassoon and Owen Graves and Blunden The voice is a male voice This book is a study of what women wrote about militarism and world war 1 Handbook of British Literature and Culture of the First World War Ralf Schneider,Jane Potter,2021-09-20 The First World War has given rise to a multifaceted cultural production like no other historical event This handbook surveys British literature and film about the war from 1914 until today The continuing interest in World War I highlights the interdependence of war experience the imaginative re creation of that experience in writing and individual as well as collective memory In the first part of the handbook the major genres of war writing and film are addressed including of course poetry and the novel but also the short story furthermore it is shown how our conception of the Great War is broadened when looked at from the perspective of gender studies and post colonial criticism The chapters in the second part present close readings of important contributions to the literary and filmic representation of World War I in Great Britain All in all the contributions demonstrate how the opposing forces of focusing and canon formation on the one hand and broadening and revision of the canon on the other have characterised British literature and culture of the First World War Malice in Wonderland Hugo Vickers,2021-10-05 The witty and perceptive diaries kept by Cecil Beaton s authorized biographer during his many fascinating encounters with extraordinary often legendary characters in his search for the real Cecil Beaton Hugo Vickers s life took a dramatic turn in 1979 when the legendary Sir Cecil Beaton invited him to be his authorised biographer The excitement of working with the famous photographer was dashed only days later when Cecil Beaton died But the journey had begun Vickers was entrusted with Beaton s papers diaries and most importantly access to his friends and contemporaries In Malice in Wonderland Vickers shares excerpts from his personal diaries kept during this period For five years Vickers travelled the world and talked to some of the most fascinating and important social and cultural figures of the time including royalty such as the Queen Mother and Princess Margaret film stars such as Grace Kelly Audrey Hepburn and Julie Andrews writers such as Truman Capote and photographers such as Irving Penn and Horst And not only Beaton s friends Vickers sought out the enemies too notably Irene Selznick He was taken under the wings of Lady Diana Cooper Clarissa Avon and Diana Vreeland Drawn into Beaton s world and accepted by its members Vickers the emerging biographer also began his own personal adventure The outsider became the insider Beaton s friends became his friends Malice in Wonderland is a fascinating portrait of a now disappeared world and vividly and sensitively portrays some of its most fascinating characters as we travel with Vickers on his quest
