El Monserrate Segundo:

El Monserrate segundo Cristóbal de Virués, Mary Fitts Finch, 1984 Myth and Identity in the Epic of Imperial Spain Elizabeth B. Davis, 2000

The first in depth analysis of some of the most important epic poems of the Spanish Golden Age Myth and Identity in the Epic of Imperial Spain breathes new life into five of these long neglected texts Elizabeth Davis demonstrates that the epic must not be overlooked for doing so creates a significant gap in one's ability to appraise not only the cultural practice of the imperial age but also the purest expression of its ideology Davis's study focuses on heroic poetry written from 1569 to 1611 including Alonso de Ercilla's La Araucana undeniably the most significant epic poem of its time Also included are Diego de Hojeda's La Christiada Juan Rufo's La Austriada Lope de Vega's Jerusalén Conquistada and Cristóbal de Virués's Historia del Monserrate Examining these epics as the major site for the construction of cultural identities and Renaissance nationalist myths Davis analyzes the means by which the epic constructs a Spanish sense of self Because this sense of identity is not easily susceptible to direct representation it is often derived in opposition to an other which serves to reaffirm Spanish cultural superiority The Spanish Christian caballeros are almost always pitted against Amerindians Muslims Jews or other adversaries portrayed as backward or heathen for their cultural and ethnic differences The pro Castilian elite of sixteenth century Spain faced the daunting task of constructing unity at home in the process of expansion and conquest abroad yet ethnic and regional differences in the Iberian Peninsula made the creation of an imperial identity particularly difficult The epic as Davis shows strains to convey the overriding image of a Spain that appears more unified than the Spanish empire ever truly was An important reexamination of the Golden Age canon Myth and Identity in the Epic of Imperial Spain brings a new twist to the study of canon formation While Davis does not ignore more traditional approaches to the literary text she does apply recent theories such as deconstruction and feminist criticism to these poems resulting in an innovative examination of the material Confronting such issues as canonicity gender the relationship between literature and Golden Age culture and that between art and power this publication offers scholars a new perspective for assessing Golden Age and Transatlantic studies

Queering the Medieval Mediterranean: Transcultural Sea of Sex, Gender, Identity, and Culture, 2021-07-26

In ten essays authored by an international team of scholars this volume explores queer readings of Western and Eastern Mediterranean Europe Northern Africa Islam and Arabic traditions The contributors enter into a dialogue comparing cases from opposite sides of the Mediterranean in order to analyze the forgotten exchange of sexualities that was brought forth through the Mediterranean and its bordering landmasses during the Middle Ages This collection questions the hypothesis that distinct cultures treated sexuality and the other differently The volume initiates the conversation around queerness and sexuality on these trade routes and problematizes the differences between various Mediterranean cultures in order to argue that through both queerness and sexuality neighboring civilizations had access to and knowledge of common shared experiences Contributors are Sahar Amer Israel Burshatin Robert L A Clark Denise K Filos

Mar a de Zayas y Sotomayor 1590 1650 published two collections of novellas Novelas amorosas y ejemplares 1637 and Desengaños amorosos 1647 which were immensely popular in her day During the nineteenth and early twentieth centuries Victorian and bourgeois sensibilities exiled her scandalous works to the outer fringes of serious literature Over the last two decades however she has gained an enthusiastic and ever expanding readership drawing intense critical attention and achieving canonical status as a major figure of the Spanish Golden Age In this first comprehensive study of Zayas's prose Margaret R Greer explores the relationship between narration and desire analyzing both the desire for readers displayed by Zayas in her Prologue and the sexual desire that drives the telling within the novellas themselves Greer examines Zayas's narrative strategies through the twin lenses of feminist and psychoanalytic theory She devotes close attention to the weight of Renaissance literary traditions and the role of Zayas's own cultural context in shaping her work She discusses Zayas's biography and the reception of her publications her advocacy of women's rights her conflictive loyalty to an aristocratic patriarchal order her crafting of feminine tales of desire and her erasure of the frontiers between the natural and supernatural indeed between love and death itself In so doing Greer offers an expansive analysis of this recently rediscovered Golden Age writer

Racism in the modern nation state is based on a Continental and an American model In the Continental model the racist differentiates the raced individual by religion Because this raced individual is indistinguishable from the racist a narrative is written to see that individual In turn in the American model the racist differentiates the raced individual based on skin color Because the sign of difference is obvious no story is written to justify racist thinking By 1550 both models form part of imperial thinking in the Iberian world system An Eye on Race Perspectives from Theater in Imperial Spain describes these models at work in imperial Spanish theater The study reveals how the display of blood in drama serves the Continental model and how the display of skin color serves the American model It also elucidates how Miguel de Cervantes celebrates a subaltern aesthetic as he discards both racial paradigms John Beusterien is Associate Professor of Spanish at Texas Tech University The Encyclopedia Britannica ,1911

The club is led by Henry Winter, a brilliant and charismatic young man. Henry is obsessed with Greek mythology and philosophy, and he quickly draws Richard into his world. The other members of the Classics Club are equally as fascinating. Bunny Corcoran is a wealthy and spoiled young man who is always looking for a good time. Charles Tavis is a quiet and reserved young man who is deeply in love with Henry. Camilla Macaulay is a beautiful and intelligent young woman who is drawn to the power and danger of the Classics Club. The students are all deeply in love with Morrow, and they are willing to do anything to please him. Morrow is a complex and mysterious figure, and he seems to be manipulating the students for his own purposes. As the students become more involved with Morrow, they begin to commit increasingly dangerous acts. The Secret History is a masterful and suspenseful novel that will keep you wondering until the very end. The novel is a cautionary tale about the dangers of obsession and the power of evil.
