historians write about a variety of local history subjects that are significant in their own right but which also point to current trends in the field They show how local historians use their sources systematically from the nonverbal evidence of buildings to various types of electronic sources All periods between the middle ages and the early twenty first century are explored covering many parts of England from Skye to the Kent coast and discussing topics that include social economic religious legal intellectual and cultural history Research for Writers R. Michael Stewart,2001 Northern Landscapes Tom E. Faulkner,Helen Berry,Jeremy Gregory,2010 How distinctive is the landscape of the North East of England How far does its distinctive nature contribute to region s identity These are key questions addressed by this book drawing on hiterto little known detail and many new research findings Varieties of History and Their Porous Frontiers Roger C. Richardson,2021-06-28 Properly understood social history local history and historiography are closely interconnected and benefit from the dialectical relationships which help bind them together The actual topics and individual chapters gathered together in this book are chronologically wide ranging but are demonstrably linked by methodological common denominators and common threads in their northern and southern settings All the essays are squarely based on new research and all reach outwards as well as inwards All are problem solving and all display a vigorous methodology at work Some re visit well known historians and subjects such as W G Hoskins and Joan Thirsk and the Oxford English Dictionary Others like the essays on John Milner and G H Tupling make a convincing case for resurrecting the neglected or forgotten Local Place and the Arthurian Tradition in England and Wales, 1400-1700 Mary Bateman,2023 The first in depth study of Arthurian places in late medieval and early modern England and Wales Winner of the 2024 Dhira B Mahoney Prize for Outstanding Scholarly Book in Arthurian Studies Places have the power to suspend disbelief even concerning unbelievable subjects The many locations associated with King Arthur show this to be true from Tintagel in Cornwall to Caerleon in Wales But how and why did Arthurian sites come to proliferate across the English and Welsh landscape What role did the medieval custodians of Arthurian abbeys churches cathedrals and castles play in placing Arthur How did visitors experience Arthur in situ and how did their experiences permeate into wider Arthurian tradition And why in history and even today have particular places proven so powerful in defending the impression of Arthur s reality This book the first in depth study of Arthurian places in late medieval and early modern England and Wales provides an answer to these questions Beginning with an examination of on site experiences of Arthur at locations including Glastonbury York Dover and Cirencester it traces the impact that they had on visitors among them John Hardyng John Leland William Camden who subsequently used them as justification for the existence of Arthur in their writings It shows how the local Arthur was manifested through textual and material culture in chronicles notebooks and antiquarian works in stained glass windows earthworks and display tablets Via a careful piecing together of the evidence the volume argues that a new history of Arthur begins to emerge a local history of on site experiences of Arthur at locations including Glastonbury York Dover and Cirencester it traces the impact that they had on
