Report of the ... Meeting British Association for the Advancement of Science,1848 Library of Congress Subject Headings Library of Congress,1992 Bulletin United States. Office of Education,1916 Poisoned Relations Chelsea Berry,2024-09-17 Illuminates the competing understandings of poison and power in the Atlantic world By the time of the opening of the Atlantic world in the fifteenth century Europeans and Atlantic Africans had developed significantly different cultural idioms for and understandings of poison Europeans considered poison a gendered weapon of the weak while Africans viewed it as an abuse by the powerful Though distinct both idioms centered on fraught power relationships When translated to the slave societies of the Americas these understandings sometimes clashed in conflicting interpretations of alleged poisoning events In Poisoned Relations Chelsea Berry illuminates the competing understandings of poison and power in the Atlantic World Poison was connected to central concerns of life to the well being in this world for oneself and one's relatives to the morality and use of power and to the fraught relationships that bound people together The social and relational nature of ideas about poison meant that the power struggles that emerged in poison cases while unfolding in the extreme context of slavery were not solely between enslavers and the enslaved they also involved social conflict within enslaved communities Poisoned Relations examines more than five hundred investigations and trials in four colonial contexts British Virginia French Martinique Portuguese Bahia and the Dutch Guianas bringing a groundbreaking application of historical linguistics to bear on the study of the African diaspora in the Americas Illuminating competing understandings of poison and power in this way Berry opens new avenues of evidence through which to navigate the violence of colonial archival silences

English each chapter addresses the strengths and weaknesses of the methodology and concludes with suggestions for further reading This systematic state of the art survey is ideal for both novice researchers and professionals interested in extending their methodological repertoires The book also has a companion website which provides readers with further information links resources demonstrations exercises and case studies related to each chapter Routledge Revivals: Language in Tanzania (1980) Edgar C. Polomé, C. P. Hill, 2017-09-29 Originally published in 1980 Language in Tanzania presents a comprehensive overview of the Survey of Language Use and Language Teaching in Eastern Africa Using extensive research carried out by an interdisciplinary group of international and local scholars the survey also covers Ethiopia Kenya Uganda and Zambia The book represents one of the most in depth sociolinguistic studies carried out on this region at this time It provides basic linguistic data necessary to policy makers administrators and educators and will be of interest to those researching the formulation and execution of language policy Bulletin - Bureau of Education United States. Bureau of Education, 1927 We Built Up Our Lives Maxine S. Seller, 2001-08-30 Fearing an imminent Nazi invasion the British government interned 28 000 men and women of enemy nationality living in Britain in the spring of 1940 Most were Jewish refugees who having fled Nazi persecution were appalled to find themselves imprisoned as potential Nazi spies Using oral histories unpublished letters and memoirs artifacts and newspapers from the camps and government documents We Built Up Our Lives tells the compelling story of sixty three of these internees It is a seldom told part of the history of World War II and the Holocaust and a classic tale of human courage and resilience We Built Up Our Lives describes the survival mechanisms relied upon by the Jewish refugees Although the internees imprisoned in Britain the Isle of Man Canada and Australia were adequately housed and fed and rarely mistreated they were cut off from family friends school and work everything that had given meaning to their lives Resisting boredom anger and despair the internees made the best of a bad situation by creating education culture and community within the camps Before and after as well as during the internment in Nazi Germany and in Britain educational resources and social networks were essential to the refugees efforts to build up their lives Equally important were personal qualities of courage ingenuity assertiveness and resilience Challenges for Language Education and Policy Bernard Spolsky, Ofra Inbar-Lourie, Michal Tannenbaum, 2014-09-15 Addressing a wide range of issues in applied linguistics sociolinguistics and multilingualism this volume focuses on language users the people Making creative connections between existing scholarship in language policy and contemporary theory and research in other social sciences authors from around the world offer new critical perspectives for analyzing language phenomena and language theories suggesting new meeting points among language users and language policy makers norms and traditions in diverse cultural geographical and historical contexts Identifying and expanding on previously neglected aspects of language studies the book is inspired by the work of Elana Shohamy whose critical view and innovative work on a broad spectrum of key topics in applied linguistics has influenced many scholars in the field to think out of the box and to reconsider some basic commonly held understandings specifically with regard to the impact of language and languaging on individual language users rather than on the masses

From Here to Denmark Rajat M. Nag, Harinder S. Kohli, 2023-08-16 Here is a hypothetical place where governance is poor rule of law is not respected and justice is often denied Many particularly the poor and the marginalised suffer daily indignities big and small and live a life marked by fear and insecurity Denmark on the other hand is where good governance prevails and is reflected in predictable and accountable actions by others including the State The journey From Here to Denmark is essentially a quest of ensuring good governance Improving governance needs good strong institutions Time history culture leadership and yes luck all have a role to play in this journey But the experiences of several countries which have made this transition convincingly point to the overriding importance of human capital and an empowered citizenry who can actively participate in the affairs of their society in building strong institutions
