Steedman, 2013-12-05 This book concerns two men a stockingmaker and a magistrate who both lived in a small English village at the turn of the nineteenth century It focuses on Joseph Woolley the stockingmaker on his way of seeing and writing the world around him and on the activities of magistrate Sir Gervase Clifton administering justice from his country house Clifton Hall Using Woolley s voluminous diaries and Clifton s magistrate records Carolyn Steedman gives us a unique and fascinating account of working class living and loving and getting and spending Through Woolley and his thoughts on reading and drinking sex the law and social relations she challenges traditional accounts which she argues have overstated the importance of work to the working man s understanding of himself as a creature of time place and society She shows instead that for men like Woolley law and fiction were just as critical as work in framing everyday life Everyday Life in the Early English Caribbean Jenny Shaw, 2013 The everyday lives of Irish and Africans are obscured by sources constructed by elites Through her research Shaw overcomes the constraints such sources impose by pushing methodological boundaries to fill in the gaps silences and absences that dominate the historical record English for Everyday Living Sally Shapiro

Pellati, Nell Stiglitz Reitman, 1940-06-01 English Pronunciation in Use Mark Hancock, 2003-06-26 Mark Hancock s comprehensive pronunciation reference and practice book and audio CD is pitched at an intermediate level It can be used for individual and class use and the audio material uses a clear model of a standard British English accent for presentation and repetition exercises Attitudes to English Study among Japanese, Chinese and Korean Women Yoko Kobayashi, 2020-11-05

This edited book comprises chapters integrated around a central theme on college educated Japanese Korean and Chinese women s orientation to English study The collection is composed of two parts 1 East Asian women s motivation to study in the West and 2 East Asian women s dream to use English as a career The first part discusses their international migration as facilitated by factors characteristic of East Asian nations e g middle class women s access to advanced education and yet unequal access to professional career and other factors inherent in each nation e g different social evaluations of women equipped with competitive overseas degrees and English proficiency The second part sheds light on the dreams and realities of East Asian female adults who having been avid English learners aim for dream jobs e g interpreters or have few other career choices but to be re trained as English specialists or even as Japanese language teachers working abroad This collection is suitable for any scholar interested in the lives and voices of young educated women who strive to empower themselves with language skills in the seemingly promising neoliberal world that is however riddled with ideological contradictions
