The Romantic Period Robin Jarvis, 2015-12-22 The Romantic Period was one of the most exciting periods in English literary history This book provides a comprehensive and up to date account of the intellectual and cultural background to Romantic literature It is accessibly written and avoids theoretical jargon providing a solid foundation for students to make their own sense of the poetry fiction and other creative writing that emerged as part of the Romantic literary tradition

Blind and Blindness in Literature of the Romantic Period Edward Larrissy, 2007-06-19 In the first full length literary historical study of its subject Edward Larrissy examines the philosophical and literary background to representations of blindness and the blind in the Romantic period In detailed studies of literary works he goes on to show how the topic is central to an understanding of British and Irish Romantic literature While he considers the influence of Milton and the Ossian poems as well as of philosophers including Locke Diderot Berkeley and Thomas Reid much of the book is taken up with new readings of writers of the period These include canonical authors such as Blake Wordsworth Scott Byron Keats and Percy and Mary Shelley as well as less well known writers such as Charlotte Brooke and Ann Batten Cristall There is also a chapter on the popular genre of improving tales for children by writers such as Barbara Hofland and Mary Sherwood Larrissy finds that despite the nostalgia for a bardic age of inward vision the chief emphasis in the period is on the compensations of enhanced sensitivity to music and words This compensation becomes associated with the loss and gain involved in the modernity of a post bardic age Representations of blindness and the blind are found to elucidate a tension at the heart of the Romantic period between the desire for immediacy of vision on the one hand and on the other the historical self consciousness which always attends it
