English Gentleman Merchant:

The English Gentleman Merchant at Work Søren Mentz, 2005 During the seventeenth and eighteenth centuries servants in the East India Company established a private English trading network that was successful and highly competitive How was this development maintained seeing that the group of private merchants was constantly changing The answer must be found in the close ties connecting Madras with the City of London London was the financial centre of the British Empire as well as the generator of overseas expansion Colonial societies in the West Indies and North America were economically and socially dependent upon the metropolis and so was Madras This book places the activities of the private merchants in Madras within the framework of the first British Empire It focuses on a hitherto neglected field of study uncovering a private trading network a diaspora built on gentlemanly capitalism trust and ethnicity

The English gentleman merchant at work Søren Mentz, 2007 The English Gentleman in Trade Richard Grassby, 1994 In a pre industrial economy dominated by small family firms economic growth could not have occurred without the skill persistence and initiative of individual businessmen like Sir Dudley North North was not only a celebrated merchant and economist but an important and controversial servant of Charles II and James II Richard Grassby exploits the extraordinary wealth of documentation available to establish how North made a fortune in the Levant commodity trade and through usury He explores his character beliefs and intentions and the diverse technical and personal reasons for his success His works which are here published for the first time reveal the breadth of his intellectual interests

Gentlemen Merchants Philip N. Racine, 2008 Gentlemen Merchants preserves the correspondence between members of two wealthy slaveholding merchant families the Gourdins and the Youngs in nineteenth century Charleston South Carolina Because the correspondence lasts over forty years the letters provide a significant record of historical Southern themes Plantation born urban dwellers the correspondents comment deeply and widely on their own family history religion in the South slavery and race business secession Civil War and Reconstruction Gentlemen Merchants offers a fresh perspective on the Old South s elite slaveholders from the vantage point of commercial offices docks and wharves instead of the rural plantation These prominent Charleston families grew wealthy through commercial trading of Sea Island and upland cotton rice and wine Charleston emerges as a main character in these letters as the discrepancy between the wealthy upper class and working class immigrants becomes more pronounced There are also letters from family members who traveled widely for business and pleasure They recount travel adventures in England and France on the slopes of Mount Vesuvius and at Niagara Falls The Gourdins and Youngs lived in material comfort for over three decades and fought to preserve their way of life the basis of which was made possible by slavery The family was one shaped by privilege and destroyed by war When the world changed as a result of the Civil War the family members were left penniless It is unusual that both sides of this correspondence have survived making this collection an extraordinary primary source for historical research Historically minded general readers will also enjoy the perspective on the urban South that these letters provide Philip N Racine published numerous articles and books about southern history including Piedmont Farmer He is currently the William R Kenan Professor of History at Wofford College where he has taught since 1969

Gentlemen Merchants Richard George Wilson,1971 The Doctrine of the English Gentleman in the Sixteenth Century Ruth Kelso,1929 The English Gentleman David Castronovo,1987 Baker and Milsom Sources of English Legal History John Baker,2010-05-13 Baker and Milsom s Sources of English Legal History is the definitive source book on the development of English private law This new edition has been comprehensively revised and updated to incorporate new sources discovered since the original publication in 1986 and to reflect developments in recent scholarship All the sources included are translated into modern English offering an accessible inroad to the leading primary materials for students of the history of the common law The sources themselves revealing the operation of courts across a wide range of personal and economic disputes offer a rich resource for historians researching the development of the English government society and economy Their significance in shaping the common law spans beyond England and ensures the collection is an essential reference point for all those interested in the history of the common law in any jurisdiction Records of the English province of the Society of Jesus ... in the sixteenth and seventeenth centuries Henry Foley,1875 The English Chartered Trading Companies, 1688-1763 Michael Wagner,2018-05-23 This book provides a collective view of the five major English chartered trading companies which were active during the period 1688 1763 The East India Company the Royal African Company the Hudson s Bay Company The Levant Company and the Russia Company Using both archival and secondary sources this monograph fills in some of the knowledge gaps concerning the less well studied companies and examines the interconnections between international rivalry the financial operations of the companies and politics which have not featured prominently in the historiography Luxury in Global Perspective Karin Hofmeester,Bernd-Stefan Grewe,2016-11-28 Machine generated contents note Luxury and global history Bernd Stefan Grewe and Karin Hofmeester 1 Precious things in motion luxury and the circulation of jewels in Mughal India Kim Siebenhuner 2 Diamonds as a global luxury commodity Karin Hofmeester 3 Gold in twentieth century India a luxury Bernd Stefan Grewe 4 Chinese porcelain local and global context the imperial connection Anne Gerritsen 5 Luxury or commodity The success of Indian cotton cloth in the first global age Giorgio Riello 6 The gendered luxury of wax prints in South Ghana a local luxury good with global roots Silvia Ruschak 7 From Venice to East Africa history uses and meanings of glass beads Karin Pallaver 8 Imports and autarky tortoiseshell in early modern Japan Martha Chaiklin 9 Tickling and klicking the ivories the metamorphosis of a global commodity in the nineteenth century Jonas Kranzer 10 The conservation of luxury safari hunting and the consumption of wildlife in twentieth century East Africa Bernhard Gissibl 11 Luxury as a global phenomenon concluding remarks Bernd Stefan Grewe and Karin Hofmeester Goods from the East, 1600-1800 Maxine Berg,Felicia Gottmann,Hanna Hodacs,Chris Nierstrasz,2015-07-13 Goods from the East focuses on the fine product trade s first Global Age how products were made marketed and distributed between Asia and Europe between 1600 and 1800 It brings together established scholars as well as new to provide a full comparative and connective study of this trade

Reinventing the Economic History of Industrialisation Kristine Bruland, Anne Gerritsen, Pat Hudson, Giorgio Riello, 2020-03-26 The Industrial Revolution is central to the teaching of economic history It has also been key to historical research on the commercial expansion of Western Europe the rise of factories coal and iron production the proletarianization of labour and the birth and worldwide spread of industrial capitalism However perspectives on the Industrial Revolution have changed significantly in recent years The interdisciplinary approach of Reinventing the Economic History of Industrialisation with contributions on the history of consumption material culture and cultural histories of science and technology offers a more global perspective arguing for an interpretation of the industrial revolution based on global interactions that made technological innovation and the spread of knowledge possible Through this new lens it becomes clear that industrialising processes started earlier and lasted longer than previously understood Reflecting on the major topics of concern for economic historians over the past generation Reinventing the Economic History of Industrialisation brings this area of study up to date and points the way forward

The Agency of Empire: Connections and Strategies in French Overseas Expansion (1686-1746) Elisabeth Heijmans, 2019-10-29 In The Agency of Empire Connections and Strategies in French Expansion 1686 1746 Elisabeth Heijmans places directors and their connections at the centre of the developments and operations of French overseas companies The focus on directors decisions and networks challenges the conception of French overseas companies as highly centralized and controlled by the state Through the cases of companies operating in Pondicherry Coromandel Coast and Ouidah Bight of Benin Elisabeth Heijmans demonstrates the participation of actors not only in Paris but also in provinces ports and trading posts in the French expansion The analysis brings to the fore connections across imperial cultural and religious boundaries in order to diverge from traditional national narratives of the French early modern empire

Dragons Liam Byrne, 2016-05-26 Britain's rise to global dominance from the 16th century owed as much to the vision and creativity of traders industrialists and bankers as it did to wars of conquest fought by military men DRAGONS tells the story of British business endeavour through the lives of ten titans of commerce Beginning with the Tudor merchants who transformed England's economy via trade with the New World Liam Byrne traces an entrepreneurial golden line through men such as Thomas Pitt saviour of the East India Company financier Nathan Rothschild creator of the modern bond market William Lever brand builder philanthropist and creator of Britain's first great multinational and John Spedan Lewis founder of the employee owned John Lewis Partnership At the start of the 21st century Britain remains a major economic power DRAGONS is both a rousing celebration of British business genius and a fascinatingly informative narrative of a neglected but essential strand of our island's story
