English Private Law Second Cumulative Updating Supplement:

Structure and Justification in Private Law C.E.F. Rickett, Ross Grantham, 2008-02-27 Peter Birks's tragically early death and his immense influence around the world led immediately to the call for a volume of essays in his honour by scholars who had known him as a colleague teacher and friend. One such volume published in 2006 contained essays largely from scholars working in England. Mapping the Law: Essays in Memory of Peter Birks edited by Andrew Burrows and Lord Rodger. This volume contains the essays of those outside England who chose to honour Peter and appears later than the English volume, reflecting the far-flung habitations of its authors. The essays contained in this volume are focussed around the law of unjust enrichment but are not narrowly preoccupied; instead, they move freely from unjust enrichment to some of the most profound questions in private law concerning taxonomy, the relationship between contract, property and unjust enrichment, and the place of remedies within private law. This volume, featuring the work of some of the world's great private lawyers, provides a fitting tribute to a great scholar and a series of thought-provoking essays inspired by his example.

Contributors: Kit Barker, Michael Bryan, Peter Butler, Hanoch Dagan, Simone Degeling, Daniel Friedmann, Mark Gergen, Ross Grantham, Steve Hedley, John McCamus, Mitchell McInnes, Eoin O'Dell, Charles Rickett, Struan Scott, Emily Sherwin, Stephen Smith, Richard Sutton, Michael Tilbury, Stephen Waddams, Peter Watts, Ernest Weinrib, Eric Descheemaeker.

Boundaries of Personal Property Arianna Pretto-Sakmann, 2005-08-15. This study of the boundaries of personal property has an inward and an outward perspective, with the intellectual emphasis on the latter. The inward-looking inquiry considers shares as items of personal property. Nowadays, those who think of themselves as shareholders often stand one step removed from the share itself. They hold what this book christens a sub-share. This part of the book asks in what sense shares and sub-shares can be conceived to be things, how those things are alienated, and how they are protected in litigation. The outward-looking inquiry then asks whether personal property can be contemplated as a sub-category of the law of things, and more particularly as the law of all things locatable in space, alienable or vindicable in court. The outward inquiry considers three boundaries. Within the law of property, the line between realty and personalty proves relatively uncontroversial; the second boundary lies between property and obligations; the third, between wealth and non-wealth. The second boundary is the main concern. Respect for it necessitates a differentiation between the law of property in the strict sense and the all-encompassing law of wealth, even where the consequence might be to exclude shares and sub-shares from the law of property. In maintaining the value of careful proprietary taxonomy and in reviving the underlying concepts on which it depends, this book opposes modern scepticism as to the possibility and desirability of precision in legal classification. In these commitments, it could fairly be styled a post-modern study of personal property. Winner of the SLS Birks Prize for Outstanding Legal Scholarship 2006, Second Prize.
