Narayanaswamy, 2004-06 It is a refresher a reference book and a workbook for teachers of English It is also for teachers handling subjects other than English in schools and colleges The book centres round the idea that grammar paves the way for smooth and accurate communication and aims to strike a balance between conventional concepts and latter day developments and between descriptive grammar and grammar in use Each chapter of the book begins by describing the forms of the grammatical class or category it deals with It then presents a variety of illustrative examples Finally it explains the communicative uses of the forms and the situations in which they are typically used A distinct feature of the book is that it deals with both spoken and written grammar with greater emphasis on the written mode

Second Language Needs Analysis Michael H. Long, 2005-11-03 No language teaching program should be designed without a thorough analysis of the students needs The studies in this volume explore Needs Analysis in the public vocational and academic sectors in contexts ranging from service encounters in coffee shops to foreign language needs assessment in the U S military In each chapter the authors explicitly discuss the methodology they employed and in some cases also offer research findings on that methodology Several studies are task based making the collection of special interest to those involved in task based language teaching Contributions include work on English and other languages in both second and foreign language settings as well as a comprehensive overview of methodological issues in Needs Analysis by the editor
