It is easily managed in the classroom with three components at each level: a Student Textbook, a Student Workbook and a Teacher Resource Book. The Student Textbook gives a thorough coverage of the key skills of Grammar, Spelling, Punctuation, Comprehension and Vocabulary Building. The units are designed to build pupils' knowledge of these language skills and apply them in their written tasks with the aim of writing effectively for a wide range of purposes. Planning, drafting, revising and editing copy are all covered in developing these writing skills. Students are also taught to understand the characteristics of different styles and forms of writing. Nelson English International Teacher's Resource Book 4 John Jackman, Wendy Wren, 1996. The Teachers Resource Book will show how the course provides an underpinning structure to the teaching of English focusing particularly on the knowledge, skills and understanding of writing while giving ample opportunity for reading, listening and speaking.

Nelson English International Teacher's Resource Book 5 John Jackman, Wendy Wren, 2014-11. The Teachers Resource Book will show how the course provides an underpinning structure to the teaching of English focusing particularly on the knowledge, skills and understanding of writing while giving ample opportunity for reading, listening and speaking. Notes are given on how new skills and concepts are introduced slowly and progressively and it is never assumed that a concept has been mastered simply because it has been introduced before. The teacher is able to monitor and estimate progress and attainment in a constant and convenient way as assessment is an important component of the pupil material. Opportunities are constantly offered for reinforcement and revision and when related skills and concepts are being introduced the activities are designed to allow for earlier material to be revisited.
