Collected Works of George Grant George Grant, 2000 Collected Works of George Grant George P.
Grant, 2000-12-15 More than a decade after his death George Grant continues to stimulate challenge and inspire During his lifetime he influenced a broad cross section of Canadians urging them to think more deeply about matters of social justice and individual responsibility He wrote on subjects as diverse as technology abortion Canadian politics and nationalism and the war in Vietnam and was claimed equally by rightist and leftist causes Grant's legacy includes six books and more than two hundred articles as well as numerous broadcast transcripts extensive correspondence and a wealth of unpublished lectures essays and notes In this projected eight volume series Grant's published and unpublished writings including his complete correspondence will be brought together for the first time. The texts are annotated and each volume includes an introduction to the period that it covers The series will not only make it possible to see the whole pattern of Grant's thought but will also invite a reconsideration of the nature and importance of his work Volume I covers Grant s intellectual development through his student years Included are his early reviews a brief journal written as he recovered from tuberculosis in 1942 and his earliest social and political writings about Canadian and international affairs The most important of Grant's formative years were those spent at Oxford after the war culminating in the writing of his DPhil thesis on the Scottish philosopher John Oman In this dissertation published here in full we see the main themes of Grant's thought worked out for the first time Collected Works of George Grant: 1951-1959 George Parkin Grant, 2000-01-01 A collection of all the important material from the 1950s when philosopher Geroge Grant did his first teaching and writing at Dalhousie George Grant and the Subversion of Modernity Arthur Davis, 1996-01-01 The focus of this book is the unknown University George Grant namely the philosophic religious and artistic inspiration behind his well known public postions the Faith Douglas John Hall, This bold work culminates Hall s three volume contextual theology the first to take the measure of Christian belief and doctrine explicitly in light of North American cultural and historical experience Hall is deeply critical of North American culture but also of sidelined Christian churches that struggle to gain dominance within it We must stop thinking of the reduction of Christendom as a tragedy he says The disestablishment that the churches reluctantly enjoy can enable them to develop genuine community uncompromised theology and honest engagement with the larger culture To a failed culture and a struggling church Hall shows the radical implications of a theology of the cross for the shape and practice of church preaching ministry ethics and eschatology Hall's frank and prophetic volume is the trilogy's most practical and the most sustained probe to date of Christian life in a post Christian context Politics and the Religious Imagination John H.A. Dyck, Paul S. Rowe, Jens Zimmermann, 2010-06-10 Politics and the Religious Imagination is the product of a group of interdisciplinary scholars each analyzing the connections between religious narratives and the construction of regional and global politics combining a set of theoretical and philosophic insights with several case studies that represent varied geographies and religious customs The past decade has seen increasing interest in the links between religion and politics and this edited volume seeks to take religion seriously as a motivator of action Few studies have attempted to bring together the multi disciplinary work in this burgeoning field of study and this work takes a global perspective using a variety of contexts including East West relations to analyze the following key themes the constructive and destructive hermeneutics of religious stories the relevance and importance of religion as a dominant political narrative the rise of new stories among groups as agents of change the way that religious narratives help to define and constrain the Other the manipulation of religious stories for political benefit This work argues that it is insufficient to judge the relationship of religion and politics through mere institutional or quantitative lenses and this collection proves that while this promise of the narrative part of the social imaginary has been recognized in political theory to a certain extent its influence in the realm of empirical political science has yet to be fully considered Combining the work of a wide range of experts this collection will be of great interests to scholars of politics philosophy religious studies and the literary influence of religion Realism in Urban Ministry Barry K. Morris, 2016-05-20 What pray tell does a faithful urban ministry require if not a triadic relationship of prayer justice and hope Could such a theologically conjunctive relationship of prayer justice and hope fortify urban ministry and challenge students and practitioners to ponder and practice beyond the box Frequently justice is collapsed to charity hope into wishful thinking or temporarily arrested despair and prayer a grasp at quick fix interventions An urban ministry's steadfast public and prophetic witness longs for the depth and width of this triad Via three countries decades of endeavors one chapter brainstorms urban ministry practices while another s literature survey signals crucial convictions Amid many seminal theologians are summoned to ground urban ministry intimations and implications Niebuhr on justice Moltmann on hope and Merton on contemplative prayer Evident is passion that fuels compassion in the service of justice hope that engages despair and prayer that draws from the contemplative center of it all thankful resources for long haul ministry. The triad presses to illumine a concrete ministry s engagement of relentless forced option issues yet with significant networks resourcing Contrast awareness animates endurance The summary exegetes the original grace based serenity prayer Hence hope vitally balances realism s temptation to cynicism Realism saves hope from irrelevancy

George Grant Hugh Donald Forbes, 2007-01-01 George Grant 1918 1988 is the most engaging and provocative writer to have dealt with Canadian politics in the last fifty years His Lament for a Nation 1965 is an undisputed classic of our nations political literature An instant best seller on account of its practical political argument it has endured as an interpretation of Canadian history and a justification for nationalism in this country Along with Grants other books it has also helped to clarify what is meant by the malaise of modernity said to characterize our time and thus has served to introduce more than a generation of students to the basic questions of political philosophy This study aims to guide the reader toward a clearer understanding of Grants thought Focusing on his six short books and some of his most revealing articles and addresses it serves as both an introduction to and an overview of George Grants career and his many contributions to the fields of political science philosophy religion and Canadian studies Hugh Donald Forbes relates Grants work to that of three disparate and controversial European thinkers Martin Heidegger Leo Strauss and Simone Weil exploring Grant outside of the strictly Canadian framework in which he is normally situated This volume offers fresh perspective on the work of an important political philosopher It will prove invaluable reading for students new to the subject as well as for those interested in a comprehensive study of an outstanding Canadian thinker Collected Works of George Grant George Parkin Grant, 2000 The fourth and final volume of the Collected Works of George Grant contains his writings from the last period of his life and includes unpublished material such as lectures interviews and excerpts from his notebooks Image and Identity R. Bruce Elder, 2006-01-01 What do images of the body which recent poets and filmmakers have given us tell us about ourselves about the way we think and about the culture in which we live In his new book A Body of Vision R Bruce Elder situates contemporary poetic and cinematic body images in their cultural context Elder examines how recent artists have tried to recognize and to convey primordial forms of experiences He proposes the daring thesis that in their efforts to do so artists have resorted to gnostic models of consciousness He argues that the attempt to convey these primordial modes of awareness demands a different conception of artistic meaning from any of those that currently dominate contemporary critical discussion By reworking theories and speech in highly original ways Elder formulates this new conception The works of Brakhage Artaud Schneeman Cohen and others lie naked under Elder's razor sharp dissecting knife and he exposes the essence of their work cutting deeply into the themes and theses from which the works are derived His remarks on the gaps in contemporary critical practices will likely become the focus of much debate Selected Essays in English Literatures, British and Canadian Herbert Zirker, 2002 This collection of essays begins with a reassessment of Swift's Gulliver's Travels in particular addressing the universal formative impact it keeps exerting on the myth of utopia N Frye and the ramifications it displays in contemporary exem Christ and Modernity David J. Hawkin, 2010-10-30 In this re examination of the roots of the relationship between religion and science David Hawkin focuses on the concept of autonomy as he explores the question Is there continuity and compatibility between the autonomy that underlies Christian faith and the role of individual freedom in the technological age What makes this work particularly valuable is Professor Hawkin's review of the theological philosophical political psychological and sociological works that have formed our ideas of the nature of both Christianity and modernity Reimarus Strauss Schweitzer and Bultmann on the quest for the historical Jesus Bauer and Turner on Christian faith and practice Machiavelli Nietzsche Darwin Freud and Marx on our historicity Gogarten Cox and Bonhoeffer who affirm our autonomy in the technological process Ellul and George who deny it The Bible, Baconianism, and Mastery Over Nature Cameron Wybrow, 1991 Modern scholars have frequently asserted that Western technological mastery over nature sprang from the triumph of Biblical over pagan modes of thought In a spirited response to the views of Berger Collingwood Cox Foster Jaki Roszak Toynbee White and others the author disproves this hypothesis By a careful exposition of pagan Biblical and early modern texts he shows that the theme of mastery is no more pronounced in Biblical than in pagan thought and that Bacon's science entailed a rejection of both Further he shows that the radical character of modern mastery was effectively concealed by the Baconians whose slipshod but rhetorically successful interpretation of Biblical dominion supplied
