Economic Relations Between Egypt The G:

Economic Relations Between Egypt and the Gulf Oil States, 1967-2000 Gil Feiler, 2003 Providing an insight into the relationship between Egypt and the Gulf oil states this work analyzes the effects economic aid and cooperation had on the political relation ship between the two sides and on President Sadat s peace initiative with Israel The Arab Spring, Democracy and Security Efraim Inbar, 2013 This volume analyzes the political economic and strategic dimensions of the recent upheavals in the Middle East known as the Arab Spring Mass demonstrations in many Arab states challenged the political status quo and the existing political and cultural system in the region While it is too early to offer a definitive analysis of the impact of the widespread discontent in the Arab world the trajectory of the events indicates regime change in several states containment of political unrest in most states increase in Islamic tendencies centrifugal tendencies in a number of political units and deterioration of economic conditions This volume presents an initial assessment by a selected group of Israeli scholars of the implications of the Arab Spring The chapters focus on important issues such as democratization the role of economic factors in political change and explanations for variations in regime stability in the Middle East Taking an international relations perspective the book not only examines the evolving regional balance but also explores the link between external and internal politics and the implications of terrorism for regional security The chapters also address the implications of the Arab Spring for Israel and its chances of existing peacefully in the region This volume will be of much interest to students of Middle East politics international security foreign policy and international relations

Reengaging Egypt: Options for US-Egypt Economic Relations Barbara Kotschwar, 2010 Foreign Aid of Gulf States Mohammad Yaghi, Hanaa Almoaibed, Silvia Colombo, 2025-09-29 This book explores how Gulf States foreign aid strategies have transformed in the wake of 9 11 and the 2011 Arab Uprisings It traces the shift from a solidarity based model to aid increasingly driven by political and military objectives particularly in conflict zones like Yemen Libya and Syria The book analyzes enduring traits and evolving trends in aid allocation highlighting a growing emphasis on humanitarian assistance transparency and alignment with global governance norms Yet a persistent preference for bilateral aid raises questions about long term impact and transparency The politicization of aid post 2011 reveals how Gulf donors wield aid as a tool of geopolitical influence Looking ahead the book outlines a research agenda that examines the rebranding of Gulf aid the implications of its militarization the role of economic diversification and the influence of shifting regional dynamics such as Saudi Iran relations and the Abraham Accords on future strategies This book is essential reading for scholars policymakers and practitioners in international development political science Middle Eastern studies and global governance The chapters in this book were originally published as a special issue of Third World Quarterly The Arab Spring in the Global Political Economy L. Talani, 2014-07-29 Although it is still early for an established academic account of the motivations behind the dramatic events in the Arab world in 2010 11 Leila Simona Talani believes that it is about time to try and place this issue into the broader picture of the latest changes in the global political economy The International Political Economy of Migration in the Globalization Era Leila Simona Talani, 2021-09-28 This book concerns with the analysis of the impact of globalization on international migration from a distinct international political economy perspective It confronts theoretical debates from the different international political economy IPE approaches and elaborates on the implications of different theories in policymaking and political realms Here migration is examined as an integral part of the global political economy that is structurally connected to the process of globalization although the definition of globalization itself is a subject of enquiry

Influence and Resistance in Post-Independence Egyptian Architecture Marwa M. El-Ashmouni, Ashraf M. Salama, 2022-07-22 This book is an effort towards an in depth understanding of the architectural discourse in Egypt developed over more than eight decades It offers a distinctive theoretical interpretation of the forces shaping the kaleidoscopic shifts in Egyptian architecture through the analysis of the micro space of architectural representation of twentieth century Egyptian architecture Predicated on historical contextualization theoretical integration and global conceptualization Edward Said s analytical method of contrapuntal reading and the spatial discourse analysis posited by C Greig Crysler are lucidly assimilated to generate insights into various voices within the architectural discourse in Egypt The analysis and critique of two important professional magazines al Imarah 1939 1959 and Alam al Bana 1980 2000 which shaped the collective psyche of both the academic and professional communities in Egypt and the wider region coupled with the exploration of two other short lived magazines M imaryah 1982 1989 Medina 1998 2002 and other less influential professional magazines discloses the structure of attitude and reference or the exclusions and inclusions that defined the boundaries of the space of the discourse Influence and Resistance in Post Independence Egyptian Architecture paves the way to genuinely debate a yet to mature twenty first century s architectural discourse in Egypt This book is a key resource for architects architectural historians and critical theorists and will appeal to academics and to both graduate and advanced undergraduate students in architectural history and theory and Middle East and Global South studies From Egypt to Europe Leila Simona Talani, 2009-11-30 How does the process of globalisation relate to the increase of migratory flows from less developed countries to western ones This book explores the impact of globalisation upon migration from an international political economy perspective paying particular attention to the dynamics of migration from the Middle East and North Africa area especially Egypt to the EU member countries The theoretical aims of the book are to understand the problem of migration both legal and illegal in the context of globalisation and to assess the relation between globalisation marginalisation and the EU response to threats of mass immigration from less developed countries Under Construction: Logics of Urbanism in the Gulf Region Steffen Wippel, Katrin Bromber, Birgit Krawietz, 2016-02-17 Interdisciplinary in approach this volume explores and deciphers the symbolic value and iconicity of the built environment in the Arab Gulf Region its aesthetics language and performative characteristics Bringing together a range of studies by artists curators and scholars it demonstrates how Dubai appeared at least until the financial crisis to be leading the construction race and has already completed a large number of its landmark architecture and strategic facilities In contrast cities like the Qatari capital Doha still appear to be heavily under construction and in countries like the Sultanate of Oman ultra luxury tourism projects were started only recently While the construction of artificial islands theme parks and prestige sport facilities has attracted considerable attention much less is known about the region s widespread implementation of innovative infrastructure such as global container ports free zones inter island causeways and metro lines This volume argues that these endeavours are not simply part of a strategy to prepare for the post oil era for future economic survival and prosperity in the Lower Gulf region but that they are also aiming to strengthen identitarian patterns and specific national brands In doing so they exhibit similar yet remarkably diverse modes of engaging with certain global trends and present questionably distinct ideas for putting themselves on the global map Each country aims to grab attention with regard to the world wide flow of goods and capital and thus provide its own citizens with a socially acceptable trajectory for the future By doing that the countries in the Gulf are articulating a new semiotic and paradigm of urban development For the first time this volume maps these trends in their relation to architecture and infrastructure in particular by treating them as semiotics in their own right It suggests that recent developments in this region of the world not only represen

Fortress Europe? Annette Jünemann, Nikolas Scherer, Nicolas Fromm, 2017-03-16 An unprecedented number of people is currently on the move seeking refuge in Europe Large parts of European societies respond with anxiety and mistrust to the influx of people Nationalist anti migrant parties from Slovakia over Germany to the UK have gained increasing support among the electorate and challenge the political mainstream Europe is struggling how to respond While the search for solutions is ongoing one pattern seems to be emerging Fortress Europe is in the making Unfortunately few of these discussions and measures consider the structural root causes and dynamics of migration the motives of migrants or societal challenges more thoroughly This book seeks to address this deficit Taking migration and asylum policies as a starting point it analyses the various dimensions underpinning migration In doing so it identifies why receiving countries are in many ways part of the problem To eschew an overtly Euro centric perspective and stimulate a debate between science and politics it contains contributions by academics and practitioners alike from both shores of the Mediterranean

Making the Arab World Fawaz A. Gerges, 2018-04-03 How the conflict between political Islamists and secular leaning nationalists has shaped the history of the modern Middle East In 2013 just two years after the popular overthrow of Hosni Mubarak the Egyptian military ousted the country's first democratically elected president Mohamed Morsi of the Muslim Brotherhood and subsequently led a brutal repression of the Islamist group These bloody events echoed an older political rift in Egypt and the Middle East the splitting of nationalists and Islamists during the rule of Egyptian president and Arab nationalist leader Gamal Abdel Nasser In Making the Arab World Fawaz Gerges one of the world's leading authorities on the Middle East tells how the clash between pan Arab nationalism and pan Islamism has shaped the history of the region from the 1920s to the present Gerges tells this story through an unprecedented dual biography of Nasser and another of the twentieth century Arab world's most influential figures Sayyid Qutb a leading member of the Muslim Brotherhood and the father of many branches of radical political Islam Their deeply intertwined lives embody and dramatize the divide between Arabism and Islamism Yet as Gerges shows beyond the ideological and existential rhetoric this is a struggle over the state its role and its power Based on a decade of research including in depth interviews with many leading figures in the story Making the Arab World is essential reading for anyone who wants to understand the roots of the turmoil engulfing the Middle East from civil wars to the rise of Al Qaeda and ISIS Cumulative Index of Congressional Committee Hearings (not Confidential in Character).
