Strategic Management for Tourism Communities Peter E. Murphy, Ann E. Murphy, 2004-11-05 Tourism with its wide ranging impact needs to be managed effectively but how This book advocates taking a business approach to tourism that encourages greater collaboration between stakeholders in the practical assessment of tourism options The approach places key business management functions and stakeholders at the forefront of tourism initiatives The business management functions of planning organising leadership and control are the filters through which tourism opportunities are viewed while the stakeholder groups of customers residents industry and government set the agenda for appropriate tourism development Tourist destinations must engage in realistic assessments of their abilities to meet the needs and expectations of tourism stakeholders and then act on these assessments so their goals and objectives can be achieved A new model for bridging stakeholder gaps is presented as a template for how communities can understand and make the most of their tourism resources The Bridging Tourism Gaps Model is a practical tool to help destinations focus on the important factors in developing and maintaining tourism as a beneficial and vital part of their communities This book builds on the success of

Tourism A Community Approach and the subsequent tourism planning experiences of both authors to advance strategic planning in tourism Rural Tourism In Malaysia (Penerbit USM) Mastura Jaafar, Azizan Marzuki, Shardy Abdullah, 2019-08-09 Rural tourism provides opportunities for travellers to experience rural attractions and getting familiar with the culture and heritage It is known to stimulate rural economy through job creation farm support nature conservation rural supplies and services landscape and nature conservation rural arts and crafts and enrichment of local heritage The development will profit the local community through tourism products ranging from ecotourism to cultural tourism With rich and melting pot of multicultural and biodiversity Malaysia has great potential in rural tourism Both Peninsular Malaysia and East Malaysia have the best ecotourism destinations in the region Malaysia is blessed to have the UNESCO branded rural destinations such as Kinabalu Park Gunung Mulu National Park and Archaeological Heritage of the Lenggong Valley The rural tourism concept in Malaysia has been integrated with other tourism concepts such as sustainable tourism indigenous tourism ethnic tourism agrotourism ecotourism farm tourism cultural tourism and heritage tourism This integrated concept has been explored in a few case studies involving archaeological ecotourism mangrove and highland tourism of rural destinations These rural destinations offer great potentials in providing the truly Malaysia experiences however it is yet to be fully capitalized Managing rural tourism development is very challenging due to its limited resources and infrastructure thus identification on how the destination is presented managed and promoted are the major focus of this book Therefore these interesting case studies are hoped to enlighten the development of the selected rural tourism destinations in Malaysia

Emerging Research in Intelligent Systems Miguel Botto-Tobar, Henry Cruz, Angela Díaz Cadena, Benjamin Durakovic, 2022-02-09 This book constitutes the proceedings of the XVI Multidisciplinary International Congress on Science and Technology CIT 2021 held in Quito Ecuador on June 14 18 2021 proudly organized by Universidad de las Fuerzas Armadas ESPE in collaboration with GDEON CIT is an international event with a multidisciplinary approach that promotes the dissemination of advances in science and technology research through the presentation of keynote conferences In CIT theoretical technical or application works that are research products are presented to discuss and debate ideas experiences and challenges Presenting high quality peer reviewed papers the book discusses the following topics Artificial Intelligence Computational Modeling Data Communications Defense Engineering Innovation Technology and Society Managing Technology Sustained Innovation and Business Development Security and Cryptography Software Engineering Building Community Capacity for Tourism Development Gianna Moscardo, 2008 A lack of entrepreneurial capacity limited understanding of tourism markets and a lack of community understanding of tourism and its impacts have been identified as barriers to effective tourism development in peripheral regions This book will provide a focused academic analysis of this emerging issue within tourism development practice while critically examining the dimensions and processes of building community capacity to manage and develop a tourism industry Tourism, nature and sustainability Hogne Øian, Peter

Fredman, Klas Sandell, Anna Dóra Sæþórsdóttir, Liisa Tyrväinen, Frank Søndergaard Jensen, 2018-05-24 Recently the Nordic countries have experienced a rapid growth in numbers of visitors At some popular nature attractions this has resulted in crowding environmental damage costly rescue operations and overload on public infrastructure Implementation of economic policy instruments have hence been suggested to secure a more sustainable development While the applicability of e.g. entrance fees is restricted by the public rights of access economic instruments tend to represent short sighted solutions Sustainable development requires holistic policies which take environmental social and economic aspects into consideration in a long term perspective To achieve a more sustainable development of tourism it is suggested that a limited use of economic instrument should take place in combination with adaptive management strategies and available legal and administrative instruments

Environment and Tourism Andrew Holden, 2007-12-06 This second edition of Environment and Tourism reflects changes in the relationship between tourism society and the natural environment in the first decade of the new century Alongside the updating of all statistics environmental policy initiatives examples and case studies new material has been added This includes two new chapters one on climate change and natural disasters and the other on the relationship between tourism and poverty These themes have direct relevance not only to tourism but are reflective of the wider relationship between nature and society a thesis that contextualizes this book Tourism is also analyzed as an interconnected system linking the environments of where tourists come from with the ones they go to Taking a holistic view of the tourism system and how it interacts with the natural environment this volume illustrates the positive and negative effects of this relationship and importantly how tourism can be planned and managed to encourage natural resource conservation and aid human development It is an invaluable tool for all those studying human geography tourism and environment studies
