The Unfractured Faith of Erik Routley Nancy L. Graham, 2023-11-17 Erik Routley Reformed churchman musician and theologian is arguably the most significant hymnologist of the twentieth century In The Unfractured Faith of Erik Routley From Brighton to Princeton Nancy L. Graham unveils Routley's extraordinary life through his own eyes Anecdotes from nearly forty years of correspondence with his many colleagues and friends enliven the foundations of Routley's faith scholarship and pastoral relationships until his untimely death in 1982 Congregation members from his churches in Edinburgh and Newcastle former students fellow clergy and editorial partners recall Routley's energy wit and straightforward observations as well as the riveting effect of his sermons and lectures Routley's extensive works explore the prophetic and timeless assertion that musicians and preachers are synergistic artists in service to the Gospel An important part of this book is the detailed description of the Dunblane Music Consultations that lit the hymn explosion of the 1960s The effects of these remarkable collaborations rippled through the next generation of writers and composers and are the unsung groundwork for the current approach to hymn writing

The Serious Business of Worship Melanie Ross, Simon Jones, 2011-11-03 The study of liturgy has received criticism from scholars and practitioners alike the academic discipline of liturgiology has been compared to the hobby of stamp collection and proponents for liturgical renewal argue that worship must be made more accessible and relevant Bryan Spinks has been an important moderating voice in this discussion reminding both academic and ecclesial communities that Christ is made known in the liturgical riches of the past as well as in contemporary forms of the present Inspired by Spinks work this volume brings together biblical historical and theological scholars to discuss the theme of continuity and change in worship Its historical range begins with the early church extends through the Reformation and concludes with a discussion of issues facing contemporary liturgical reform In recognition of the fact that Professor Spinks work has been widely influential in both Europe and the United States the editors have solicited liturgical perspectives from scholars with international reputations on sides of the Atlantic

Communion with Non-Catholic Christians Jeffrey Thomas VanderWilt, 2003 How should a Catholic pastor respond to non Catholics who wish to have Communion without conveying harshness scrupulosity legalism or rudeness Intended to help Christians recognize the present provisional norms and to seek new possibilities in eucharistic sharing Communion with Non Catholic Christians examines the risks challenges and opportunities involved in the admission of Communion to non Catholic Christians

Bower, 1996-01-01 This new handbook will be welcomed by all congregations using the Revised Common Lectionary Convenient and user friendly this one volume guide provides resources for the entire three year lectionary cycle including midweek festival days Essays on the Real Church Dirk J. Smit, 2024-08-15 The spirit of the Reformation is often expressed in the well known slogan that Reformed churches are always being reformed according to God's Word ecclesia reformata semper reformanda secundum verbum Dei Over the last century the spirit of this slogan motivated someone like Dietrich Bonhoeffer to argue that the visible form and life of the church should reflect the truth and message of the church Already in his doctoral dissertation called Sanctorum Communio the communion of the saints the young Bonhoeffer combined theological claims and traditions with social theory and analysis in this spirit in an innovative way to study the nature and integrity and witness of the church At the time this was a radical claim with major consequences and challenges for Protestant churches Their life which meant their order structure actions statements convictions public presence and role was to be measured by their gospel which meant their message proclamation convictions claims They could no longer proclaim one truth yet live a different life It was this spirit which led to the well known Theological Declaration of Barmen in 1934 and to the formation of the Confessing Church in Nazi Germany Many called this a moment of truth a status confessionis It was this same spirit which later inspired the struggle in South Africa for the integrity and faithfulness of the church and for the credibility of its message proclamation and witness The contributions in this volume 52 papers essays sermons studies were all produced in this spirit Most of them have not been published before They were all occasional pieces written over several decades in different contexts and for different purposes and audiences yet they all breathe this self critical spirit of the Reformation considering whether the real church the concrete every day actual living church that people know and experience and perhaps belong to truly strives to embody the gospel itself the message which it claims and proclaims They all inquire under different circumstances and in diverse ways about different social forms of the real church from worship to congregation from denomination to ecumenical church from individual believers to movements and organisations whether and how they embody the truth of the church or not Together these contributions tell a story the story of this spirit in South African circles over several decades but also in the ecumenical church in our globalizing world They offer one small glimpse into different concrete moments in the story of this spirit in the life of this tradition and community of faith Hopefully some of these accounts may resonate with others who also shared the same spirit and still share it today in new and ongoing ways Church Music ,1976 Comprehensive Calendar of Bicentennial Events
