emerged later in the decade He has long enjoyed international standing and admiration and his work is widely known Despite this recognition this volume contains hundreds of works that have infrequently or never been exhibited or published Each work is catalogued with a color reproduction collection details full chronological provenance exhibition history and bibliographic references Essays by Lisa Turvey and Harry Cooper complete this extraordinary survey which expands and enriches our understanding of Ruscha s pioneering exploration of the written word as a subject for visual art and his witty assessment of the iconography of Los Angeles both real and imagined Ed Ruscha and the Great American West Karin Breuer,D.J. Waldie,Ed Ruscha,2016-07-12 The renowned artist Ed Ruscha was born in Nebraska grew up in Oklahoma and has lived and worked in Southern California since the late 1950s Beginning in 1956 road trips across the American Southwest furnished a conceptual trove of themes and motifs that he mined throughout his career The everyday landscapes of the West especially as experienced from the automobile gas stations billboards building facades parking lots and long stretches of roadway are the primary motifs of his often deadpan and instantly recognizable paintings and works on paper as well as his influential artist books such as Twentysix Gasoline Stations and All the Buildings on the Sunset Strip His iconic word images declaring Adios Rodeo Wheels over Indian Trails and Honey I Twisted through More Damn Traffic to Get Here further underscore a contemporary Western sensibility Ruscha s interest in what the real West has become and Hollywood s version of it plays out across his oeuvre The cinematic sources of his subject matter can be seen in his silhouette pictures which often appear to be grainy stills from old Hollywood movies They feature images of the contemporary West such as parking lots and swimming pools but also of its historical past covered wagons buffalo teepees and howling coyotes Featuring essays by Karin Breuer and D J Waldie plus a fascinating interview with the artist conducted by Kerry Broucher this stunning catalogue produced in close collaboration with the Ruscha studio offers the first full exploration of the painter s lifelong fascination with the romantic concept and modern reality of the evolving American West Published in association with the Fine Arts Museums of San Francisco Exhibition dates de Young San Francisco July 16 October 9 2016 Some Los Angeles Apartments ,1970 Ed Ruscha s works Twentysix Gasoline Stations Some Los Angeles Apartments Various Small Fires and Thirtyfour Parking Lots still retain their capacity to surprise delight and puzzle in equal measure In the several decades since they were published they have been much exhibited written about and analyzed yet they somehow are still objects of mystery and fascination beguiling in their utter simplicity and immutable rightness At the time of publication they were largely overlooked by much of the photography world The apparent anti formalism and indifferent technique of Ruscha s pictures were derided the perfect formalism of each book as an art object was not appreciated Also disregarded was Ruscha s interest in and debt to two of photography s luminaries Walker Evans and Robert Frank The Photobook A History Volume II Martin Parr and Gerry Badger London Phaidon 2004 The Urban Condition Ghent Urban Studies Team,1999 What does the Western city at the end of the twentieth century look like How did the modern metropolis of congestion and density turn into a posturban or even postsuburban cityscape What are edge cities and technoburbs How has the social composition of cities changed in the postwar era What do gated communities tell us about social fragmentation Is public space in the contemporary city being privatized and militarized How can the urban self still be defined What role does consumer aestheticism have to play in this These and many more questions are addressed by this uniquely conceived multidisciplinary study The Urban Condition seeks to interfere in current debates over the future and interpretation of our urban landscapes by reuniting studies of the city as a physical and material phenomenon and as a cultural and mental artefact The Ghent Urban Studies Team responsible for the writing and editing of this volume is directed by Kristiaan Versluys and Dirk De Meyer at the University of Ghent Belgium It is an interdisciplinary research team of young academics that further consists of Kristiaan Borret Bart Eeckhout Steven Jacobs and Bart Keunen The collective expertise of GUST ranges from architectural theory urban planning and art history to philosophy literary criticism and cultural theory Consuming Architecture Daniel Maudlin, Marcel Vellinga, 2014-03-05 Projecting forward in time from the processes of design and construction that are so often the focus of architectural discourse Consuming Architecture examines the variety of ways in which buildings are consumed after they have been produced focusing in particular on processes of occupation appropriation and interpretation Drawing on contributions by architects historians anthropologists literary critics artists film makers photographers and journalists it shows how the consumption of architecture is a dynamic and creative act that involves the creation and negotiation of meanings and values by different stakeholders and that can be expressed in different voices In so doing it challenges ideas of what constitutes architecture architectural discourse and architectural education how we understand and think about it and who can claim ownership of it Consuming Architecture is aimed at students in architectural education and will also be of interest to students and researchers from disciplines that deal with architecture in terms of consumption and material culture The Concise Focal Encyclopedia of Photography Michael Peres, 2014-06-20 Defining photography is impossible Revealing it is another matter and that's what The Concise Focal Encyclopedia of Photography does with each turn of the page History The technical origins and evolution of photography are half of the story The other half consists of the ways that cultural forces have transformed photography into a constellation of practices more diverse than any other mode of representation Photographers can tell a more in depth story through a photo like Dorothea Lange's Migrant Mother than a journalist ever could with the written word alone Major themes and practitioners Over 25 entries many with supporting illustrations examine the figures trends and ideas that have contributed most heavily to the history and current state of photography Contemporary issues The issues influencing photography today are more complex than at any other time in its history Questions of ethics desire perception digitization and commercialization all vie for attention Hear what the experts have to say about crucial issues such as whether or not the images we take today will last the test of time and if so how When material is covered this skillfully concise is no compromise The Concise Focal
