Skill Formation Regimes in South Asia

Markus Maurer, 2011 In the face of accelerated economic globalisation many of the industries in economically less developed countries have become more technology intensive Skill formation processes both inside and outside firms are therefore changing This study scrutinises such transformations by comparing from the perspective of historical institutionalism the skill formation regimes of the garment industries in Sri Lanka and Bangladesh It sheds light on the differences between the trajectories of the in firm skill formation regimes of the two countries and reveals the important part that varying paths of educational development in both countries have played in shaping these trajectories At the same time the study shows how in both countries state led skill formation regimes have been transformed not only by market forces and the growing importance of corporate business interests but also by the social demand for educational credentials

The Challenge in South Asia Ponna Wignaraja, Akmal Hussain, 1989-08-31 This book reflects the crisis of development the associated crises of state and its impact on regional cooperation in South Asia The resulting political and social unrest violence and militarisation of state structures are considered in detail The contributors to this volume focus on the depth of the crises and articulate alternatives available and sustainable in the South Asian context the common heritage the renewable resource base and the available stock of knowledge which enlarges the range of technological options

Economic and Business issues in Retrospect and prospect Kerem Gökten, Ahmet Arif Eren, 2019-03-10 There is a strong view that economics is the academic discipline that best represents the claim of positive science among social sciences Economics has undergone significant transformations after its emergence as a science Despite all these transformations the feature containing positive and normative elements has not changed While economists from the political economy tradition focus on qualitative studies that relate to other social sciences especially political science and history a group of economists adopt the qualitative methods of natural sciences to analyze economic problems There is a debate among economists on how to understand social reality and what kind of science the economy should be Business is a discipline that has declared its relative independence from economics over time Business is a research field that encompasses a wide range of areas ranging from organizational behavior of individuals to the firm's production and marketing strategies This book contains articles on essential topics related to these disciplines which have an inseparable relationship between them Academicians contributing to the book have produced works on current topics of discussion as well as key subjects that remain important in economics and management

Encouraging Foreign Direct Investment (FDI) in Bangladesh's Power Sector Tareq Mahbub, 2023-04-26 This book identifies and investigates the determinants that influence investment decision making for conducting foreign direct investment FDI in Bangladesh's power sector This book is organized around six core themes These are Bangladesh's vision to become a middle income country by 2021 and have universal power for all an overview of the benefits and costs of FDI from a host nation's perspective an outlook of Bangladesh's power sector starting from the years 1994 2008 through 2011 2015 to 2016 2020 and beyond the key factors that encourage foreign investors to conduct FDI in the Bangladeshi power sector subsumed under four broad categories of investment prospects namely regulatory economic and financial political and social the key barriers that deter FDI in the Bangladeshi power sector and policy implications for long term investment sustainability in the power sector The main arguments posited in this book are regulatory aspects are the most important for firms when conducting FDI in the power sector land acquisition is a perennial problem that continues to hamper the development of large scale power projects there is a need for a transparent and competitive selection process to improve transparency and accountability in private power procurement and more exploration of onshore and offshore gas fields with the extension of gas transmission networks be enhanced that ensure a regional balance of primary energy supply gas for setting up additional gas based power plants in the country Michigan Journal of Economics ,1980

Getting In Is Not Enough Colette Morrow, Terri Ann Fredrick, 2012-12 This anthology examines women's paid work in terms of both access to the economic system and the broader agenda of achieving feminist social change worldwide Generations of feminists have linked women's empowerment autonomy and oppression to issues involving work Most conflated women's economic and political clout with gender equity arguing that increasing women's access to and leadership in the public workplace is crucial to the success of the feminist project But recent debates about women's continued inability to gain equality in the workplace raise the need for new approaches to teaching about gender and employment Getting In Is Not Enough responds to the challenge Drawn from almost two decades of the Feminist Formations journal the essays in this book critically examine assumptions about access and the ways in which women affect and are affected by work in three major spheres economic social and political Getting In Is Not Enough focuses on how access based feminism a term developed by Colette Morrow and Terri Ann Fredrick has both failed and succeeded in achieving equity and justice for women and looks at how transnational feminism has addressed these concerns using a global fundamentally transformative approach The contributors consider a wide range of issues from an examination of the male female wage gap that starts when girls are teenagers to policewomen in Persian Gulf countries to Latinas politics to Aboriginal health care workers to secretarial work and to feminist activism in Cuban hip hop The Routledge History of Fashion and Dress, 1800 to the Present

Veronique Pouillard, Vincent Dubé-Sénécal, 2023-10-24 The time span covered by The Routledge History of Fashion and Dress starts in the nineteenth century with the aftermath of the consumers revolution and reaches all the way to the present The fashion and garment industries have been international from the beginning and as such this volume looks at the history of fashion and dress through the lenses of both international and global history Because fashion is also a multifaceted subject with human agency at its core at the confluence of the material fabrics clothing dyes tools and machines and the immaterial savoir faire identities images and brands this volume adopts a transdisciplinary perspective opening its pages to researchers from a variety of complementary fields The chapters in this volume are organized based on their relationship to five fields of study economics and commerce politics business identities and historical sources Paying particular attention to change the book goes beyond the great fashion capitals and well known fashion centers and points to the broader geographies of fashion Particular geographical areas focus on the emergence of new fashion systems and business models whether they be in Sweden Bangladesh or Spain or on the African continent considered to be the new frontier of the industry Covering myriad aspects of the subject this is the perfect companion for all those interested in history of dress and fashion in the modern world Group Farming in Asia: Experience and Potentials , Index Islamicus ,1997
