Hess, 1999 The role of politics in literary creation and interpretation is discussed for the French intellectual tradition and the critical period in France from 1931 to 1948 Maurice Blanchot's early fiction is analyzed as a symbolic expression of its sociopolitical context He portrays the plight of the Jewish people and of the French nation in his fiction published between 1936 and 1949 A recent storm of critical reaction raises questions about the rights and limits of the literary critic and about moral and personal aspects of the author text and reading process Politics and Literature offers a model for critical interpretation that takes into account complexity process and the sociopolitical context of the literary text L'Aube de la Modernité 1680-1760 Peter-Eckhard Knabe,Roland Mortier,François Moureau,2002-12-20 The purpose of this collective work is to throw new light on a period which is defined neither in historical nor in ideological terms but along specific literary criteria Across the XVIIth and the XVIIIth century a new perspective appears on the status of literature and its relation to the author Literature overflows the traditional limits of the so called belles lettres and the classical rules inherited from the tradition Starting with The battle of the books or with the new psychology of Marivaux s comedies and journals the way is paved for a new form of writing that will eventually promote a new kind of drama rooted in real life as well as a considerable extension of the realm of satiric inspiration The famous Querelle des Anciens et des Modernes is a token of this profound change While the prestige of the author is raised as in Pope s case the domain of literature is extended to the field of social and economic life giving models and advice even on trivial and utilitarian matters These trends are studied in a broad European perspective by a team of scholars coming from various horizons and cultures Le "Nouveau roman" en questions ,1992 Études sur la littérature française: sér.
