Egg-Drop Blues Jacqueline Turner Banks, 2003 Desperate to raise his grade in science Judge hopes he can succeed in the egg drop competition he's entered in with his twin brother Worried sensitive and learning to come to terms with dyslexia Judge tells of his struggles with schoolwork with a sometimes difficult brother and with finding his own self esteem It's a story that readers will enjoy sympathize with and eagerly follow to a happy and logical conclusion Egg Drop Blues F+G Banks, 1995-09-01 Many Peoples, One Land Alethea K. Helbig, Agnes Regan Perkins, 2000-10-30 Celebrating the wealth of quality multicultural literature recently published for children and young adults this valuable resource examines the fiction oral tradition and poetry from four major ethnic groups in the United States Each of these genres is considered in turn for the literature dealing with African Americans Asian Americans Hispanic Americans and Native American Indians Taking up where their earlier volume This Land is Our Land left off Helbig and Perkins have teamed up once again to identify and expertly evaluate more than 500 multicultural books published from 1994 through 1999 Both considered authorities in the field of children's literature the two of them personally selected read and evaluated all the books included here Their insightful annotations help readers carefully consider both literary standards such as plot development characterization and style as well as cultural values as they are represented in these cited works Each entry also indicates the suggested age and grade level appropriateness of the work With the proliferation and ever increasing popularity of multicultural literature for children and young adults this sensitively written volume will serve as an invaluable collection development tool Teachers as well as librarians will find the comprehensiveness and organization of this bibliography helpful as a guide in selecting appropriate materials for classroom use Even students will find this book easy to use with its five indexes identifying works by title writer illustrator grade level and subject Public libraries and school media centers will find much use for Many Peoples One Land Using Literature to Support Skills and Critical Discussion for Struggling Readers Nancy S. Williams, 2004 Emphasizing the need to develop higher level thinking skills and critical discussion with intermediate and middle school struggling readers Williams uses quality children's literature as a springboard to help readers understand and use descriptive vocabulary and figurative language make personal connections with text create and solve text related mathematical problems promote an active engaged discussion and critical analysis of the story and the important issues raised in text extend meaning through research and writing art and drama To help teachers match student to text literature selections are categorized according to interest e.g. mystery sports humor identity solving problems genre and include reading level interest level and number of pages Discussion questions and extension activities _specific to over 100 children's literature selections_ provide opportunities for students to ask questions discuss and use descriptive language make predictions and inferences evaluate story elements and critically reflect on character perspectives and social issues raised in the text All questions are appropriate for individual work special education classrooms general education and inclusion classrooms and help teachers facilitate literature discussion groups book club discussion and response writing self regulated reading guided reading and whole class discussions

Sapphire Blue Kerstin Gier, 2012-10-30 Gwen's life has been a rollercoaster since she discovered she was the Ruby the final member of the secret time traveling Circle of Twelve. In between searching through history for the other time travelers and asking for a bit of their blood, Gwen's been trying to figure out what all the mysteries and prophecies surrounding the Circle really mean. At least Gwen has plenty of help. Her best friend Lesley follows every lead diligently on the Internet. James the ghost teaches Gwen how to fit in at an eighteenth century party. And Xemerius the gargoyle demon who has been following Gwen since he caught her kissing Gideon in a church offers advice on everything. Oh yes. And of course there is Gideon the Diamond. One minute he's very warm indeed the next he's freezing cold. Gwen's not sure what's going on there but she's pretty much destined to find out.

Beyond The Little Blue Box John T Draper, C Wilson Fraser, 2018 Welcome to the world of John T Draper better known as Captain Crunch an eccentric genius who went from being a penniless hacker to a millionaire and back again. Along the way he developed some of the most significant tools of the computer revolution but for every success there have been setbacks and hurdles of literary proportion. Featuring a foreword by Apple co founder Steve Wozniak and cameos by the who's who of early computing this Kerouacian journey gives us an inside look at the birth of modern computing through the eyes of one of its most influential pioneers.

Chilly and the Blue Notes Bob Ernest, 2022-08-21 Chilly wants to learn how to play an instrument and ends up buying a piano. His friends want to join in the fun and play with Chilly but he keeps playing the only song he knows. His friends all get bored and piano refuses to play for him any longer. Sue calls a music teacher friend and she gets Chilly and his friends on track again by expanding their repertoire.
