Grosvenor Myer,1997 For many middle class women of Austen's day marriage was paradoxically the only method of achieving independence Marriage could also be a life sentence Myer shows that by many accounts Austen was pretty and flirtatious though occasionally also sharp tongued and the object of at least two proposals but obstinate in her refusal to marry for other than love Her obstinacy condemned her to reliance on her family for financial support As Myer points out it also enabled Austen to write her immortal novels

Secrets to Happiness Sarah Dunn,2009-03-05 Holly Frick has just endured the worst kind of breakup the kind where you're still in love with the person leaving you While her wounds are still dangerously close to the surface her happily married best friend confesses over a bottle of wine that she is this close to having an affair And another woman comes to Holly for advice about her love life with Holly's ex Holly decides that if everyone around her can take pleasure wherever they find it so will she As any self-respecting thirtyish New York woman would do she brings two males into her life a flawed but endearing dog and a good-natured much younger lover She's soon entangled in a web of emails chance meetings and misguided good intentions and must forge an entirely new path to Nirvana From the author of The Big Love Secrets to Happiness is a big-hearted knife-sharp and hilariously entertaining story about the perils of love and friendship sex and betrayal and a thoroughly modern take on our struggle to be happy London Dan Ryan,2011-10-03 LONDON is the continuation of the story begun in WAR OF THE NATIONS It is a work of fiction The names characters places and incidents portrayed in this novel are the product of the author's imagination or have been used fictitiously The characters are placed within the historical perspective of the signing of the Armistice on November 11 1918 and the years immediately following this event The events depicted in this novel were first presented in the Times Encyclopedia and Gazetteer 431 South Dearborn Street Chicago Illinois copyrighted 1934 This collection of eight volumes contains a comprehensive day-by-day narrative of the world war and years immediately following The main characters are Admiral James Caldwell and his two sons James Jr and Louis Caldwell James Sr is the story teller as the navy family considers moving to London following the war The purchase of 1600 acres called Springwell in the novel is based upon the purchase of Chartwell by Winston Churchill in 1921 Winston Churchill faced a similar situation in his life at this time in history Churchill entered the British army in 1893 fought at the battle of Khartoum with the Nile Expeditionary Forces in 1898 and was in the Boer War of 1899 He was elected to parliament for Oldham in 1900 was Under Secretary of State for the Colonies in 1906 married Clementine Hozier in 1908 and was Home Secretary in 1910 He served as First Lord of the Admiralty Minister of Munitions and Secretary for War and Air during the war In 1921 he was voted out of office and the House of Commons The novel is a work of fiction Its location was inspired by my time spent in London during the spring semester of 1974 The Rotary Foundation Group Exchange district 114 in England invited a number of scholars from the United States to spend time in England living with various Rotarians of District 114 I was teaching at the University of Nebraska at the time and I was chosen to represent District 565 of the United States It was during this time that I came to know the people of Reigate

Redhill and Merstham just south of London This is where I met some of the characters for my novel and I stayed overnight in the Prince of Wales in Reigate the Ashleigh Public House in Redhill and the Lakers Hotel in Merstham The historical events which are outlined in this book all took place The dates and locations are accurate but the characters are the products of my overactive imagination Some persons mentioned however are real You cannot write about this period of our history without making reference to commanding admirals or generals
